2006 JAYHAWK FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

A Message From Coach Mangino

The Jayhawk faithful are anticipating another exciting football season both in Memorial Stadium and on the road. You can be sure that our players and coaching staff have prepared very well for the challenges of the 2006 season.

Our schedule is challenging once again this season, as we build upon our success of last year.

In 2005, we were able to achieve a perfect 6-0 season at Memorial Stadium, and set a home attendance record. All of this was accomplished with the great enthusiasm displayed by our loyal fans.

Our players have worked diligently in the offseason, not only on the field, but also in the classroom. Our team's grade point average this past spring semester was the highest it has ever been at KU.

Please come join us in 2006 for what has the potential to be another record-setting season for the 'Hawks!

Warmest regards,

Head Coach, Kansas Jayhawks

Contact the media relations office for any information pertaining to coverage of Kansas football. The 2006 football media guide has been produced to assist the media in its coverage of the Jayhawks, so please take a moment to look through the media information on the following pages for services available and guidelines of the KU media relations office. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact our office.

* Contact the media relations office for all player or coach interview requests. All interviews with players will take place after Mark Mangino's press conference between 12:30 and 1:15 p.m. on Tuesdays or after practice on Wednesday. Media should request players 24 hours in advance to allow time for the athletes to be notified of the interview.

* Home and cell phone numbers for players will not be provided and players have been instructed not to accept calls from media without prior notice from the media relations office. Please do not contact a player or coach without scheduling the interview through the media relations office.

* Practices will be open to the media for the first 30 minutes on Tuesdays. No practices will be open to the public unless previously announced. Members of the media are required to inform the media relations office when they plan to attend the beginning of a workout. When at practice, media members must stay at the end of the practice field at all times unless escorted by a member of the media relations staff.

* With the exception of post-game interviews, Kansas football players will not participate in live radio interviews. Players will be available for taped interviews when scheduled through the media relations office.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Mark Mangino will conduct a weekly press conference, followed by selected players, each Tuesday during the season. This year's press conference will debut Aug. 29. The press conferences are held at noon in the John Hadl Auditorium located on the first floor of the Wagnon Student-Athlete Center.

Players will be available in a one-on-one format following Coach Mangino from 12:30 to 1:15 p.m. Lunch will be served after each press conference session.

To request players for the weekly press conference, media should contact the media relations office by noon each preceding Monday at 785/864-3420.

Out-of-town media wishing to interview Kansas players should also contact the media relations office by noon, Monday, to arrange for players to call them between 12:30 and 1 p.m. CST each Tuesday.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

On Campus: It is mandatory that player interviews be conducted at Mark Mangino's weekly press conference on Tuesday in the John Hadl Auditorium located on the first floor of the Wagnon Student-Athlete Center. In addition to player availability at coach Mangino's press conference, selected players will be available after Wednesday's practice.

By Telephone: For a telephone interview with a player, contact Mason Logan by noon each preceding Monday. Interviews will be scheduled between 12:30 and 1:15 p.m. CST each Tuesday during the season.

COVERING PRACTICE

Media members, photographers and videographers from recognized media outlets may shoot and attend KU's practices each Tuesday for the first 30 minutes of practice. Please contact Mason Logan in the Kansas media relations office by Monday at noon if you plan to attend. All other practices are closed to the public and media.

Practice Locations: The majority of KU practice sessions are scheduled for the practice fields located just south of the Anschutz Sports Pavilion. Depending on the weather, the team may also practice at Memorial Stadium or inside Anschutz.

COVERING HOME GAMES

Credentials: All credential requests should be directed to Mason Logan in writing on letterhead of the media agency represented. All credentials should be requested by noon on Thursday prior to the game. Credentials requested after Monday of the game week will not be mailed. Instead, they will be available for pickup at a location agreeable to both parties. The Memorial Stadium Media Will Call distribution location is at the base of the elevator below the pressbox.

Pressbox: The Memorial Stadium pressbox is located on the west side of the stadium. Entrance is at the base of the elevator located just off of Maine Street. The first two floors (level six and seven) are suites. Level eight is reserved for the print media, home and visiting radio, home and visiting booths for coaches and athletics directors, along with game and scoreboard operations. Level nine serves as the photo deck and the location for television booths.

Big 12 Coaches Teleconference

Every Monday throughout the season each Big 12 Conference head coach will be available via conference call from 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. (Central). Each coach will be available for 10 minutes, with KU head coach Mark Mangino in the leadoff slot beginning at 10 a.m. For the telephone number to access the call, contact the Big 12 office at 214/742-1212. The briefings originate from conference headquarters in Dallas, Texas. The sessions are open only to working members of the media.

Media Information

Pressbox Services: Packets with pre-game information will be distributed in advance of kickoff on the day of the game. Play-by-play, complete halftime and final statistics, coaches and player quote sheets, are all regular services on game day. A fax service is also provided upon request. Stat monitors with live, updated statistics are available throughout the print media level and in booths for electronic media. In addition, television monitors are also part of the fixtures in both home and visiting radio booths.

Radio: The Jayhawk Radio Network provides one ISDN and two POTS lines, along with two dry pairs to the visitor's locker room, in the visiting radio booth. Visiting radio personnel should contact Bob Newton, producer/engineer of the Jayhawk Radio Network, at 785/843-1320 regarding use of these lines. The visiting radio booth is located on level eight and provides seating for four at the window, plus an elevated engineer's area behind the announcers.

Telephones: Writers wanting phone lines at their seat locations should contact the KU Telecommunications Office at 785/864-9300 regarding installation. For specific line location, please list Mason Logan in media relations as the contact. Allow at least two weeks notice prior to the game. There are several community telephones in the main working press area of the pressbox. These phones are available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Photographers: Photo passes are available for accredited news media. Photographers may work from the sidelines in accordance with NCAA rules. The bench area is off limits to the media and to those taking photographs. Photographers must secure a sideline armband from a representative of the media relations office to have field access. No sideline credentials will be issued to freelance photographers or radio station representatives except for the two originating networks.

Post-Game Interviews: Media may exit the pressbox with approximately five minutes remaining in the game to be escorted to a restricted area on the sidelines. The Kansas locker room, located on the pressbox side of the stadium, is closed to the media. Coach Mangino and selected players will meet with the media in the interview area adjacent to the KU locker room after the cooling down period.

The Memorial Stadium pressbox has 36 scholarship suites on two floors and over 130 seats for members of the media on the main press level.

BIG 12 SERVICES

Teleconference: Every Monday throughout the season each Big 12 Conference head coach will be available via conference call from 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. (Central). Each coach will be available for 10 minutes with KU Head Coach Mark Mangino in the leadoff slot beginning at 10 a.m. For a complete schedule of each coach's air time and the number to access the call, contact the Big 12 office at 214/742-1212. The briefings originate from conference headquarters in Dallas. The sessions are open only to the media.

Satellite Feed: The Big 12 Conference will transmit a weekly videotape highlight segment nationally via satellite. The package, done with the cooperation of the Nebraska Educational Telecommunications Commission, includes game-action footage, player and coach interviews and features provided by the Big 12 institutions. To access the weekly satellite series, please contact the Big 12 Conference Service Bureau.

EVERYTHING BUT THE PRE-GAME MEAL

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Big 12 football. Access and download weekly game notes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its 12 member schools throughout the season. University of Kansas football games can be heard exclusively during the 2006 season on the Jayhawk Radio Network with Bob Davis and David Lawrence forming the broadcast team. Nate Bukaty will add color commentary from the sidelines and also handle the Crimson and Blue Line Show, which runs prior to each KU game. The Jayhawk Radio Network is a division of ESPN+ with offices in Lawrence. Angela Haar serves as ESPN+ general manager of the University of Kansas program.

Davis is in his 23rd year calling the play-by-play for Kansas football and basketball and 39th season overall in the broadcast booth. Davis also serves as host for the weekly radio call-in program, Hawk Talk, featuring the Jayhawk football and basketball coaches.

Davis is also wrapping up his 10th year as the play-by-play announcer for the Kansas City Royals Sports Television Network (RSTN). On the national scene, Davis was part of the NCAA-CBS broadcast for the NCAA women's Final Four in 1990, 1992, 1994, 1995, 1996 and 1997.

Davis has been honored 10 times as Kansas Sportscaster of the Year. He is a two-time winner of the Oscar Stauffer Award for excellence in high school sports reporting. He has received the Sportscaster of the Year Award from the Kansas High School Athletic Directors Association and has been recognized for his contribution to Kansas Sports Broadcasting, having received the Hod Humiston Award presented by the Kansas Association of Broadcasters.

A member of the Fort Hays State University Sports Hall of Fame, Davis broadcasted Fort Hays sports for 16 years prior to joining the Jayhawk Network. Davis, during the 2000-01 basketball season, was named to Dick Vitale's "Sweet 16" -- his list of the top 16 college basketball broadcasters in the nation.

Lawrence is in his 13th season with the Jayhawk Radio Network and his first full season inside the broadcast booth. He has hosted the Crimson and Blue Line show and performed sideline reporting duties on the Jayhawk Radio Network for the past 12 years. A four-year letter winner while playing tight end and offensive guard at KU, Lawrence was voted team captain, Offensive Player of the Year and All-Big Eight in 1981. He served as a graduate assistant coach under Kansas head football coaches Don Fambrough and Mike Gottfried. Since 1985, he has been a health teacher at South Junior High School in Lawrence, where he also was head football coach for 17 years.

Lawrence was color analyst on the KU football radio broadcasts in 1982, and was the TV analyst for KU football telecasts on Sunflower Broadband Channel 6 from 1988 to 1994.

Bukaty serves as the team's sideline reporter and also hosts the pre-game Crimson and Blue Line Show. A fourth-generation KU alumnus, Bukaty earned a degree in Broadcast Journalism in 1998. He has been the Jayhawk Radio Network play-by-play announcer for KU women's basketball since 2000, and hosts Head Coach Bonnie Henrickson's "Hawk Talk" radio call-in show. Bukaty has worked in radio and television in Kansas City for the past seven years, where his current responsibilities include pre-game and post-game coverage of the Kansas City Royals.

Bob Newton, who handles broadcast operations and affiliate communications, is in his 23rd year as producer-engineer of the Jayhawk Network. He also does operations and technical work for Zimmer Radio Group in Lawrence and for KU Radio-TV Journalism.

Former radio voices of the Jayhawk Network include Gary Bender, Kevin Harlan, Max Falkenstien, Bill Grigsby, Merle Harmon, Tom Hedrick and Bob Fromme.

The Big 12 Conference

The Big 12 Conference - Entering its Second Decade of Competition

Fresh off its 10th anniversary season, the Big 12 Conference begins its second decade of competition in 2006-07. While there have been many proud accomplishments through the first 10 years, the conference and its members anticipate continued success.

Through its first 10 years, the Big 12 claimed 28 team and 310 individual NCAA titles. During this past season, conference programs captured national championships in football (Texas), women's indoor track and field (Texas), wrestling (Oklahoma State) and men's golf (Oklahoma State). In addition, 12 individual event titles were also won by student-athletes who compete in the Big 12.

The 2004-05 campaign marked the most successful in conference history with six NCAA championships. Baylor won the crown for women's basketball, becoming the first Big 12 squad to win in that sport. Colorado won both the men's and women's cross country trophies, just the fourth school in NCAA history to win both in the same year. Oklahoma State regained the top spot in wrestling, winning the national title for the 33rd time. Texas captured its fourth women's outdoor track and field crown, along with its sixth national championship in baseball.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with five appearances in the BCS National Championship game. A Big 12 team has played for the football national championship five of the last six years, and each of the last three. In basketball, an unprecedented eight men's and women's basketball teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past five seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Competitive excellence, scholarships and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12's philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and All-Big 12 Academic squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 153 scholars have received more than $845,000 in postgraduate financial aid through the first nine years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, swimming and diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 42 million people and more than 18 million television households within its geographic footprint.

The Conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that who represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

The Big 12 is under the direction of its third commissioner, Kevin L. Weiberg, who took over the reigns in December 1998. Weiberg has led the Big 12 into additional football bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN, FSN, TBS and CSTV.

In its 10-year history, the Conference has distributed $807.2 million to its 12 member institutions.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports. The conference headquarters will move to Irving, Texas, from Dallas in August 2006.

The Big 12 Conference

Kevin L. Weiberg was selected as the second Commissioner of the Big 12 Conference on Oct. 8, 1998, and officially began his duties on Dec. 4, 1998.

Under his leadership the Big 12 is regarded as one of the nation's top conferences and has made solid progress in areas of national competitive success and television exposure, conference championships, and football bowl agreements. In his tenure, the conference has also implemented a firm fiscal policy and continues to explore avenues to expand revenues. For the 2003-04 year, the Big 12 distributed a record $101 million to its member institutions, surpassing the previous high of $89 million from the 2002-03 academic year. The $12 million increase is the largest from one year to the next in the eight-year history of the Big 12 and nearly doubles the first allocation of $54 million in the Conference's inaugural year of 1996-97.

Weiberg continues to play a national leadership role in collegiate athletics. On July 1, 2004, he begins a two-year term as coordinator of the Bowl Championship Series. He previously served a three-year term on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee and completed a two-year tenure as chair of the Division I-A Collegiate Commissioners' Association.

Weiberg has renewed and enhanced the Conference's commitment to student-athlete academic performance and has revised its policies in the areas of sportsmanship and rules compliance. He has been instrumental in initiating the Group of Six Conference reform discussions which has helped produce significant momentum within the NCAA system for national academic reform.

During Weiberg's tenure a number of Big 12 sports have achieved national success. Since 1998, 17 NCAA championships have been won by conference teams. The Conference has had an unprecedented seven men's and women's basketball teams advance to their respective Final Fours in the past three seasons. The Big 12 also has sent eight teams to BCS bowls in the previous six seasons. In 2003-04, the league reaped many benefits with two NCAA titles, two BCS football teams, one team in the men's Final Four, one Women's College World Series participant and one College World Series qualifier.

Prior to joining the Big 12 Conference, Weiberg worked in conference operations for almost 10 years at the Big Ten Conference, beginning as Associate Commissioner/Chief Operations Officer before being promoted to Deputy Commissioner.

His professional career began with a 1979-80 post as Sports Information Director at Wayne State (Neb.) College. Weiberg moved to Wichita State University from 1980-87. He was Sports Information Director at WSU from 1980-83, Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing/Fund Raising from 1983-86, and became Associate Director of Athletics in 1986-87. Weiberg then served as Associate Director of Athletics at the University of Maryland from 1987-89.

The Anthony, Kan., native earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Kansas State University in 1978 and Master of Science degree in Athletics Administration from Western Illinois University in 1979.

Born July 7, 1956, Weiberg is married to the former Susan K. Latta (August 12, 1976), and they have three children: daughters Erika (19), Jenna (16) and son Garrett (14).

KU Gameday

There's no place quite like Memorial Stadium on a sunny, Saturday afternoon during football season in Lawrence.

KU Gameday

An autumn Saturday on the University of Kansas campus is filled with the excitement and festive spirit of Big 12 Conference football. From tailgating before the game, to the spectacular Jayhawk Marching Band, the atmosphere at Memorial Stadium for each home contest makes Lawrence a popular location for college football fans. Fifth-year Head Coach Mark Mangino and his staff promise an exciting and successful brand of football for Jayhawk fans in 2006.

Memorial Stadium

More than $60 million has been committed to the expansion and upgrade of facilities at the University of Kansas during the past few years.

The growth and exciting future of Jayhawk football can be best measured in renovations and modernization of Memorial Stadium -- one of college football's most tradition-filled and picturesque settings.

Memorial Stadium

Charting the Progress

- Recent upgrades to Memorial Stadium include new permanent lights, infrastructure repairs, a new concourse, new home locker room, new expanded pressbox, new MegaVision video board, north end zone video boards and a new AstroPlay field turf.
- Anschutz Pavilion, KU's indoor workout facility, has been recently enhanced with new lighting, new turf, expanded workout area and complete interior painting.
- Wagnon Student-Athlete Center provides state-of-the-art facilities for academic support, team meetings and conference rooms, a spacious lockerroom and a 4,000-square foot training room.
- The recently completed Anderson Family Strength and Conditioning Complex -- a state-of-the-art workout facility -- gives KU football players a top-tier workout facility.
- A new Aquatic Rehabilitation Center was recently built for KU student-athletes which houses three Hydroworx pools -- a Polar-Plunge pool, a Thermal-Plunge pool and a Hydroworx 1000 therapy pool.

KU Facilities

Anschutz Pavilion

The indoor practice facility for many Jayhawk teams, Anschutz Pavilion is a 40,000-square-foot multi-purpose building which includes the astroturfed Ray Evans Field.

Hadl Auditorium

The John Hadl Auditorium is one of the team meeting areas and the home of Jayhawks' weekly football press conferences.

Nesmith Athletic Training Facility

The Dean Nesmith training facility is one of the finest athletic training facilities in the nation. Completed in 1994, the facility is under the direction of Dr. Larry Magee. The training room staff focuses on providing the best health care standards possible to keep student-athletes healthy and injury free. The 4,000-square-foot facility contains a hydrotherapy area, treatment area with private examination rooms, a rehabilitation area, taping and first aid space and staff offices.

DID YOU KNOW?

Beginning with the 2008 season, the Kansas football team will move into an 80,000 square-foot facility -- a state-of-the-art centerpiece of KU's $31 million football complex project, which also includes construction of two practice fields.

Jayhawk Meeting Rooms

The Wagon Student-Athlete building is home to several meeting rooms used by the football team before and after practices.

Football Lockerroom

Year	Facility	Cost
------	----------	------

2005	Aquatic Rehabilitation Center	$410,000
-------------	---	-------------------------

The Aquatic Rehabilitation Center houses three Hydroworx pools. The Polar-Plunge pool is kept at a constant 58 degrees to help control joint inflammation and enhance muscle recovery. The Thermal-Plunge pool is kept a constant 104 degrees to relax tight muscles and stimulate the release of endorphins. The Thermal-Plunge unit also has a powerful pressure hose for deep tissue massage. The focal point of the new facility is the Hydroworx 1000 therapy pool. The therapy pool is equipped with: an integrated underwater treadmill, two powerful underwater jets that can give added resistance to the individuals training or rehabilitation workout and two underwater cameras that show two views for visual feedback during gait training. The Hydroworx 1000 is utilized for early rehabilitation exercises and therapeutic soft tissue massage under the guidance and supervision of the University of Kansas Sports Medicine Staff.

2005	Football Practice Fields	$120,000
-------------	--	-------------------------

The football practice fields were removed during the summer of 2005 and new sod was laid to alleviate any low spots or drainage problems.

2000	AstroPlay	$330,000
-------------	-------------------------	-------------------------

After playing its games on AstroTurf for 10 seasons, Kansas installed a new AstroPlay surface -- an artificial surface which imitates the look, feel and playability of a natural grass field. The system is constructed with a 10mm pad that lays on the existing asphalt surface followed by the actual "grass" material which lays on top of it. The grass fiber is then filled in with granulated rubber to provide the filler that supports the grass fiber and provides padding, footing and drainage.

1998-99	Horejsi Family Athletic Center	$3.8 million
----------------	--	-----------------------------

The 16,500 square-foot facility, located between the Wagnon Student-Athlete Center and Hoglund Ballpark, serves as the competition home for Kansas volleyball and as a practice facility for men's and women's basketball. The building offers locker room facilities for volleyball and a seating capacity of 1,300.

1997-99	Memorial Stadium	$26 million
----------------	--------------------------------	----------------------------

Phase One of the stadium improvements included permanent lights, infrastructure repairs, a new concourse that included the addition of new and expanded restrooms, concession stands and a new home locker room. Also completed for 1999 was a new expanded press box with 36 scholarship suites.

1999	Video Board	$3.1 million
-------------	---------------------------	-----------------------------

Construction was completed in the summer on the new MegaVision video board at the south end of Memorial Stadium. The video board measures 24' x 32' in size, making it one of the largest video boards in a college football stadium in the midwest.

1999	Anschutz Pavilion Upgrade	$1.3 million
-------------	---	-----------------------------

Improvements on the indoor workout facility included new lighting, a new turf and complete interior painting.

1994	Memorial Stadium	$777,000
-------------	--------------------------------	-------------------------

A waterproofing project to enhance seating at Memorial Stadium.

1991-93	Wagnon Student-Athlete Center	$8.05 million
----------------	---	------------------------------

Construction was initiated in the fall of 1991 on the Wagnon-Student Athlete Center. At the heart of the facility is Hale Achievement Center which houses the student academic services. The office and locker room complex, built in four phases, includes locker room facilities for football and baseball, the 4,000 square-foot Dean Nesmith training room for all sports, team conference rooms and offices for football, men's basketball, the athletics director and Williams Education Fund.

Student-Athlete Support Services Mission Statement

The Student-Athlete Support Services staff focuses all collective resources in support of the academic, personal and interpersonal development of each individual we serve. Therefore, we commit our energy and effort to these students as they pursue their undergraduate degrees at the University of Kansas and beyond.

Strategic Tutoring Program

- STP schedules more than 900 hours of tutoring each week for more than 150 student-athletes.
- STP has 75 tutors who work with all student-athletes who request tutoring assistance.
- Tutoring is available to any student-athlete, regardless of scholarship status or sport.
- Many of the tutors working within STP are instructors or teaching assistants at KU. Some are undergraduate students who have excelled in their respective subject areas.
- Research studies have found the Strategic Tutoring Program to be an effective program for under-prepared student-athletes and highly skilled students alike.
- Student-athletes report a high level of satisfaction with the STP.

University of Kansas Athletics Department Academic Highlights -- Spring 2006

- KU student-athletes combined for a grade point average of 2.93 in 2005-06 -- the second highest mark in school history.
- The KU football team earned its highest-ever grade point average in spring of 2006 when it posted a cumulative 2.67 team GPA.
- A total of 205 student-athletes -- 51 percent of students-athletes on active rosters -- posted a 3.0 GPA or higher to qualify for the Athletic Director's Honor Roll. Included were 40 individuals with a perfect 4.0 GPA.
- 95 student-athletes at the University of Kansas were named either first or second-team Academic All-Big 12.

"In between our first day in Lawrence and the time we walk down the hill for graduation commencement, the academic support staff is always there to help guide us in our academic endeavors. As a student athlete, we are driven to perfection both on the field and in the classroom. With the assistance of our academic counselors we are given every opportunity to succeed academically. Our support staff has given us the means to earn a degree and the skills necessary for the rest of our lives."

- For their academic achievements last season, 205 student-athletes were named to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll after recording a grade point average of 3.0 or higher during the spring semester. Of those student-athletes, 40 recorded perfect 4.0 GPAs last spring. Ninety-five student-athletes were also named to Academic All-Big 12 first and second teams.

The University

Kansas Roots, Global Reach

The University of Kansas — fondly known as KU — is a tradition-rich, comprehensive research university that throughout its distinguished history has excelled in creating superior, enduring value for students, the state of Kansas, and the world. KU ranks among the nation's premier public research universities and is a leading center for study in a wide range of fields: the arts and humanities, the sciences, and the professions.

Founded by the same determined New Englanders who had emigrated to the Kansas Territory to create a state free of slavery, KU became one of the first universities of the Great Plains. The university opened its doors on Sept. 12, 1866, to 29 men and 26 women. Never in its history has KU restricted admissions based on race or gender.

Since its early years, KU has been fueled by high aspirations and today enjoys a national reputation for innovation and academic excellence. In 1890, the first chapters of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi west of the Mississippi River were chartered at Lawrence. The following year, the KU Endowment Association was established, the first foundation of its kind supporting a state-assisted university. In 1908, KU became one of the first 11 public universities to be admitted to the prestigious Association of American Universities. Not to be forgotten: KU initiated interscholastic basketball competition in 1898, under the leadership of Dr. James Naismith, the founder of basketball.

With a student body of 29,590 and an endowment with assets of more than $1 billion, KU has become a diversified, broad-based center of learning with professional schools in allied health, architecture and urban design, business, education, engineering, fine arts, journalism and mass communication, law, medicine, nursing, pharmacy, and social welfare. KU also has expanded geographically, adding the Medical Center in Kansas City, Kansas; the School of Medicine clinical branch in Wichita; the Edwards Campus in Overland Park; and educational and research facilities throughout the state.

World-class, Accessible Education

KU faculty members have earned international distinction: 10 have been elected national academy members, 35 are fellows of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and 269 have received Fulbright awards for international study since 1950.

Led by the faculty, KU students have achieved an impressive record of major honors: 25 Rhodes, 388 Fulbright, 38 Goldwater, 15 Truman, 13 Udall, and 9 Marshall scholarships; 24 Mellon fellowships; five Javits fellowships; and one Churchill scholarship.

KU prepares students for success in an increasingly global economy. Among public universities, KU ranks fourth in the nation for the percentage of its students who study abroad, and 23rd in the nation for the number of graduates serving as Peace Corps volunteers. In 2005, KU was chosen as one of five universities to receive the Paul Simon Award for excellence in and commitment to international education.

The attractiveness of KU to outstanding high school graduates is reflected in the current student body — the best-qualified in KU history — based on high school GPA and standardized test scores. Last fall, KU enrolled 57 National Merit scholars (16th among U.S. public universities), five National Hispanic scholars, and four National Achievement scholars.

Jayhawk Alumni

To date, thousands of men and women have experienced the value of a KU degree. About 138,000 KU alumni live in Kansas and an equal number live elsewhere in the United States; more than 5,000 alumni live abroad. KU alumni include 1996 presidential nominee and former U.S. Sen. Robert J. Dole; Clyde Tombaugh, who discovered the planet Pluto; Vernon Smith, winner of the 2002 Nobel Prize in economics; Linda Zarda Cook, managing director of Royal Dutch Petroleum Company; William Inge, Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright; and Kevin Helliker, 2004 Pulitzer Prize winner in journalism. Five KU alumni have won MacArthur Foundation "genius" awards: Ann Hamilton, visual artist; Paul Ehrlich, environmental scientist; Wes Jackson, environmental historian and president of The Land Institute, in Salina; David Hillis, evolutionary biologist; and Kent Whealy, founder and director of Seed Savers Exchange and heirloom gardening expert.

Path-breaking Research

KU's total research expenditures reached a record $274 million in 2004, more than double totals of fewer than 10 years ago. Particularly strong programs in drug development and delivery are fueled by the School of Pharmacy, which stands third in the nation in National Institutes of Health funding. KU is known for biosciences research in such areas as cancer, vaccines and Parkinson's disease.

In spring 2005, KU received a $19 million, five-year award from the National Science Foundation for a Science and Technology Center to study polar ice caps and global climate issues. With this award, KU joined an elite group of five U.S. universities with both an NSF Science and Technology Center and an NSF Engineering Research Center. A $17 million grant created KU's engineering research center in 2003 to develop environmentally friendly chemical processes.

DEEP Analysis of KU

A nationwide study by Indiana University, the "Documenting Effective Educational Practice" report, in 2004 lauded KU as a progressive research university that thoroughly engaged students in the learning process. "Many other colleges and universities will benefit from learning about KU policies and practice," the DEEP report stated.

University Statistics

- 20,887 undergraduates and 6,093 graduate students at the Lawrence and Edwards campuses; 2,610 students at the Medical Center in Kansas City, Kan.
- More than 100 fields of study and more than 100 opportunities to study abroad are offered to students.
- $159 million in financial aid and scholarships went to more than 14,000 students in 2003-04.

Student Statistics

- 68.3 percent of students come from Kansas
- KU students come from 50 states and more than 115 countries
- More than 1,500 students come from abroad
- Average age of undergraduate students: 21
- Percentage of men to women: 47.3 to 52.7
- 17.4% of the University of Kansas student body is multicultural
- Average ACT score for freshmen: 24.1 (enhanced)
- Retention rate for freshmen: 81 percent
- In fall 2004, 28.4 percent of KU first-time freshmen scored 27 or higher on the ACT or converted SAT equivalent. Nationally, 16 percent of ACT test takers scored 27 or above.

KU Tuition and Fees

Tuition and fees at KU are well below the average at comparable universities in the Midwest and the nation, according to the Kansas Board of Regents. For more information, visit www.tuition.ku.edu.

Community

Football student-athletes play an active and meaningful role in supporting community projects during their careers at the University of Kansas. Working through the Student-Athlete Support Services office, KU provides its student-athletes with opportunities to work with charitable organizations, youth groups and community service projects throughout Lawrence and surrounding communities. In addition, student-athletes also are active in the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee which also offers additional avenues of support participation. In recent years, KU student-athletes have organized and participated in a group effort to raise dollars for organizations including the 9/11 relief fund, Hurricane Katrina disaster fund and the Adopt-A-Family assistance program during the holiday season.

Campanile Hill forms the picturesque backdrop for Memorial Stadium. On a sunny fall Saturday, the "Hill" is transformed into a congregating place for watching Jayhawk football, sunning and barbequing. Potter Lake, just to the southeast of Memorial Stadium and at the bottom of Campanile Hill, adds to the beauty of the Kansas campus.

The Rock Chalk Chant

The Rock Chalk Chant has been the battle cry of KU fans for more than 80 years. This strange, traditional chant, which is among the most famous of all college cheers, was started by E.H.S. Bailey, a professor of chemistry. Bailey wanted a cheer for his Science Club. Returning from a convention in Wichita, Bailey and some associates patterned a yell after the rhythmic cadence of their train rolling along the tracks. On May 21, 1886, Bailey submitted the cheer to his club. Even though there was no football team at KU until 1890, the Rock Chalk Chant tradition steadily grew.

Before the University adopted the cheer in 1897, it consisted of "Rah, Rah, Jayhawk, KU" being repeated three times. An English professor soon suggested that "Rock Chalk" be substituted for "Rah, Rah" because it rhymed with Jayhawk. "Rock Chalk" was also symbolic of the chalky limestone formations found on Mount Oread. Professor Bailey would be amazed to hear 50,000 Jayhawk football fans shouting the cheer he gave his Science Club in 1886; a cheer that Teddy Roosevelt said was the best he had ever heard.

Waving The Wheat

Since the early days of KU football, it has been a ritual of Jayhawk fans to "wave the wheat" following every Kansas scoring drive. The ritual consists of fans waving their arms in the air, an activity which, when done by a large Memorial Stadium crowd, resembles a breezy Kansas wheat field.

KU Tradition

The Nickname

During the Civil War a regiment raised by Kansas Governor Charles Robinson called itself the "Independent Mounted Jayhawks" (later officially the First Kansas Calvary and then the Seventh Kansas Regiment). By the end of the Civil War the word Jayhawk was associated with the spirit of camaraderie and the courageous fighting qualities that characterized efforts to keep Kansas a free state.

By 1886, the University of Kansas had adopted the mythical bird as part of the KU yell. When the university's football team first took the field in 1890, it seemed only natural that they should be called Jayhawkers. Few colleges and universities have such a meaningful symbol, one so deeply associated with the struggles of the people who founded them.

The Fight Song

George "Dumpy" Bowles, a student with the class of 1912, longed to make a great contribution to KU spirit, but wasn't athletic enough to do historic deeds on the athletic field. He turned to music and produced some outstanding student musical shows.

A song in one of these shows was "I'm a Jayhawk." Written in 1912, it was dormant until 1920 when a growth in school spirit brought out "I'm a Jayhawk" once more. The song contributed to the raising of funds to build both the stadium and union as World War I memorials. The 1926 glee club made it known nationally.

The Alma Mater

In 1891, professor George Barlow Penny searched for a school song for the Glee and Mandolin Club to sing on its tour through Kansas to Denver and back. No one responded with an original song in answer to his appeals. Just before departure, he thought of the Cornell song "Far Above Cayuga's Waters." Hastily changing a few words, he gave it to the glee club men to sing on the trip. He did not expect the song to be used after their return, but "Crimson and the Blue" still goes on. The music is not Cornell's but an old English folk tune, "Annie Lisle."

What's a Jayhawk?

The University of Kansas is home of the Jayhawk, a mythical bird with a fascinating history. Its origin is rooted in the historic struggles of Kansas settlers. The term "Jayhawk" was probably coined about 1848. Accounts of its use appeared from Illinois to Texas.

The name combines two birds -- the blue jay -- a noisy, quarrelsome thing known to rob other nests, and the sparrow hawk, a stealthy hunter. The message here: Don't turn your back on this bird.

The School Colors

The University of Kansas colors, crimson and blue, used since the early 1890s, are not the colors originally adopted by the university Board of Regents in the 1860s. The Regents had decided to adopt the Michigan colors, maize and sky blue.

Maize and blue were used at early oratorical meets, and they may have been used when Kansas competed in rowing in the middle 1880s. However, when football came upon the scene in 1890, the student backers wanted to use Harvard crimson as the athletic color in honor of Col. John J. McCook, a Harvard man, who had given money for an athletic field at KU. That field ran east and west in the proximity of where the north bowl of Memorial Stadium stands on the Kansas campus today.

Until that time, Kansas football games were played at Central Park on Massachusetts Street in downtown Lawrence. Some Yale men were on the faculty, and they demanded the Yale blue be included. The rooters rallied forth to allow crimson and blue on their team. No one fought to retain the original colors, and the vivid deeper tone crimson and blue became generally used. Finally, in May 1896, the KU Athletic Board adopted crimson and blue as the official team colors for the university.

Family Atmosphere

"I can't thank Coach Mangino enough for the positive impact he had on Greg's wonderful experience in Lawrence and with the KU family. I totally applaud all he has done in bringing the winning spirit back to Memorial Stadium. Calling all Jayhawks...We have a gem in Mark Mangino."

Gil Tyree of Atlanta, Ga.

Father of former Jayhawk Greg Tyree

"Coach Mangino always talked about building a foundation on which the football program could grow. In the four years that Nick played for KU, we saw a good coaching staff assembled and quality players recruited. Based on this combination, KU won some history-making games and played to a sold out Memorial Stadium. The future of the program has never looked better. It's been great watching our son live out one of his dreams."

Walter and Penny Reid of Derby, Kan.

Parents of former Jayhawk Nick Reid

"Mark going to Kansas was a great experience for him and our family. He developed life-long friendships with the players, but more importantly he got a great lesson in character development and determination. The lessons Coach Mangino taught in the lockerroom will carry these young men much further than any pass, reception, rush or field goal. That's the 'extra' point of life."

Frank and Toni Simmons of DeSoto, Texas

Parents of former Jayhawk Mark Simmons

"I thank the University of Kansas for providing my son with a great education, the opportunity to play in front of 50,000 people each week and develop into the great son he has become. My wife and I will be back for some games this fall to visit parents of players still at KU. It truly is a family when it comes to Jayhawk football."

John Kane of Kansas City, Mo.

Coming off the school's first bowl victory since 1995, Jayhawk players and coaches are anxious to take another step forward as the University of Kansas football team prepares for the 2006 season under fifth-year head coach Mark Mangino.

With a talented collection of athletes returning to the team in 2006, Mangino and his staff are eager to kick off the new season.

The Jayhawks return a strong nucleus of players on both sides of the ball as 42 letter-winners are back, including 22 on offense, 18 on defense and two specialists. In addition, the Jayhawks return seven starters on offense, three on defense and specialists PK Scott Webb and P Kyle Tucker.

After record-setting offensive displays during the early portion of Mangino's tenure, the last two clubs have showcased some of KU's best defenses in over 40 years. Jayhawk fans hope the two components will join forces in 2006 and lift the team to its first-ever Big 12 North title.

The Jayhawk defense finished the 2005 campaign ranked among the NCAA's top defensive units. The group has a chance to be strong once again as it returns several talented linemen while touting an overall team speed the program hasn't seen in years.

The Jayhawk secondary is in solid hands with cornerback Aqib Talib returning for his sophomore season after being named Freshman All-America last year. Senior safety Jerome Kemp also returns to help patrol the defensive secondary.

Despite the loss of All-Big 12 First Team selection Charlton Keith and Second Team selection Jermial Ashley, the defensive front four returns several key contributors including defensive ends Paul Como and Rodney Allen who both saw extensive playing time in 2005.

On the offensive side of the football, Kansas welcomes back two of its top three rushers from last season, and nine of its top 11 pass receivers, including tight end Derek Fine who averaged 11.1 yards per reception.

The Jayhawks return what should be one of the most exciting collection of running backs in the Big 12 -- a group that features speed, strength and play-making abilities. Senior Jon Cornish led the team with 780 rushing yards in 2005 and will be joined in the backfield by several young, but talented runners.

At the quarterback position, the Jayhawks will look to redshirt freshman Kerry Meier to direct the offense. He will be pushed by senior Adam Barmann and true freshman Todd Reesing for the starting position. Meier spent last season learning the KU system while Reesing graduated early from high school in order to attend workouts last spring.

KU's offensive line could become one of the more dominating units in the Big 12 Conference as the team returns nine of its top 10 performers from last year, including center David Ochoa, left tackle Cesar Rodriguez and left guard Bob Whitaker who all started at least 11 games in 2005.

QUARTERBACKS

Meier appears to have the inside track at earning the starting nod when the Jayhawks take the field against Northwestern State on Sept. 2, but he'll have a number of Jayhawks to push him throughout the fall.

After a solid first year on campus, Meier showed he has all the tools to become KU's quarterback of the future. The Pittsburg, Kan., native was named co-winner of the Otto Schnellbacher Award at the team's end of the year awards banquet, given annually to KU's Offensive Scout Team MVP. During spring and summer workouts, Meier continued to develop and has a chance to turn in a fine career at Kansas.

Barmann is the only quarterback on the roster with Big 12 experience and played in a pair of league games last year. Barmann completed 16-of-30 passes in 2005 while appearing in four games.

Reesing, who was named 4A Player of the Year in Texas as a junior and Central Texas Player of the Year in 2005, also will have a chance to compete for the starting job. Reesing graduated a semester early from Lake Travis High School (Austin, Texas) in order to participate in spring drills with the Jayhawks.

Redshirt sophomore Zach Ross and true freshman Tyler Lawrence will provide assistance in a backup role.

RUNNING BACKS

The running back position has the potential to be a strong unit for the offense this season with the return of senior Jon Cornish and junior Brandon McAnderson. The emergence of redshirt sophomore Gary Green or redshirt freshman Angus Quigley would enhance the team's ability to move the ball on the ground.

Cornish led the 2005 team with a dynamic combination of power and speed. He was named the team's offensive MVP after leading the Jayhawks in rushing yards (780), rushing touchdowns (9), rushing yards per game (65.0) and yards per carry (5.8) in 2005.

2006 Season Outlook

McAnderson, a native of Lawrence, Kan., has shown signs of becoming a dominating blocker and effective ball-carrier during his first two years on the gridiron. Last season, McAnderson averaged 4.6 yards per carry and scored one touchdown. He also has been impressive on several of KU's special teams units and will push for playing time in the backfield.

KU's backfield could become even more crowded if Green or Quigley can catch the eyes of running backs coach Earle Mosley during fall practices. Both backs are considered playmakers and have the ability to change the game each time they touch the ball.

Other backs who will vie for playing time include redshirt junior Nick Kurtenbach, redshirt freshman Sam Archer and the highly-recruited freshman Jake Sharp from Central High School in Salina, Kan. Other freshmen recruits include Donte Bean and D'Marcus Lang.

WIDE RECEIVERS

This year's cupboard of wide receivers is overflowing with talent and potential after last season's team returned just one player at the position who had more than 10 career receptions. The six wide receivers who return for the 2006 season combined for 68 catches and 763 yards last year.

"We will have a balanced passing attack where we can get the ball into a lot of different hands," said Mangino.

Senior Brian Murph is KU's top returning wide receiver after hauling in 33 catches for 368 yards and two touchdowns during the 2005 season. Murph finished third on the team with an average of 33.5 receiving yards per game and averaged 11.2 yards per catch. Murph also returned one punt during the 2005 season -- which he promptly ran 85 yards for KU's first touchdown versus Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl.

Marcus Henry has shown flashes of brilliance during his first two seasons at Kansas, but will be counted upon to post even bigger numbers this year. He caught 17 passes for 183 yards last season and was one of eight players to average more than 10 yards per reception.

Redshirt sophomore Marcus Herford may be the most athletic of all the wide receivers and was used as a quarterback during his first season on campus before making the switch to wideout last year. Herford caught seven passes for 64 yards in 2005.

Redshirt senior Dominic Roux (six catches), junior Jeff Foster (four catches, one touchdown) and redshirt sophomore Dexton Fields (one catch, one touchdown) all saw time at the position last year and return to the team in 2006. All three are expected to contribute even more to the offense during the upcoming season. Second-year assistant coach Tim Beck also has several other athletes who could earn playing time including senior Jonathan Lamb and redshirt freshmen Justin Thornton, Micah Brown, Jack Swab and Raimond Pendleton.

True freshmen Xavier Rambo and Tertavian Ingram help round out KU's talented collection of receivers.

"I feel good about the young kids that we have in our program," said Mangino. "Some of them are ready to step up and play a major role in our wide receiver positions."

TIGHT ENDS

Derek Fine is the most experienced tight end on the team after starting eight games at the position last season. The Sallisaw, Okla., native finished fifth on the club with 22 catches for 244 yards and a touchdown in 2005. Once Fine has the ball in his hands, he's tough to bring down, saving some of his best work for after first contact.

Junior college transfer Marc Jones was recruited to provide an immediate offensive threat at the position after playing two seasons at Kilgore College in Texas.

Other tight ends who will look to push for playing time this fall include redshirt junior Mark Dierking, redshirt sophomore Derek Spears and freshman Bradley Dedeaux.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The deepest unit of KU's offense may be the offensive line which returns nearly ever letterwinner from last year's club. Last year's offensive line was much-improved and helped the KU running backs average 134.0 yards per game on the ground -- after collecting just 94.0 rushing yards per game in 2004.

"Certainly, we've got to develop a more physical style of play," said Mangino. "I think we are athletic up front and we're hoping that the offensive line is really going to be a strong part of our team."

Leading the way in 2006 is Ochoa who started all 12 games in 2005 as the team's center. In addition, several other starters return including Whitaker at left guard (11 starts), Rodriguez at left tackle (11 starts), right guard Ryan Cantrell (five starts), right guard Jake Cox (four starts), and right guard Travis Dambach (four starts).

In addition, the team returns tackles Anthony Collins, Matt Darton and Jose Rodriguez and guards Marcus Anderson, Matt Mann and

RB Jon Cornish

Adrian Mayes.

Junior college transfer Rameses Arceo inked with the Jayhawks during the early signing period and is expected to provide immediate depth.

Freshmen John Marshall, Carl Wilson and Ian Wolfe were all recruited to help build future success at the position.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The Jayhawks return several key performers -- including junior defensive tackle James McClinton (11 starts) -- to a defensive line that helped the team rank third in the nation against the run in 2005. Just two short years ago, Jayhawk opponents averaged nearly 200 rushing yards per game. Last year's revamped defense allowed an average of just 83.2 rushing yards per contest -- the best by any KU defense since the 1962 season.

McClinton, who gives the team a legitimate run-stopper in the middle of the line, finished the season with 27 total tackles including four tackles-for-loss in 2005. Also helping anchor the interior of the line is senior Wayne Wilder who collected seven tackles and one tackle-for-loss in 11 games last year.

Redshirt sophomore Todd Haselhorst played in 10 games during the 2004 season as a backup, and appears ready to assume a larger role in 2006 after sitting out last year because of injury.

Redshirt junior Chris Brant and redshirt freshman Luke Templin spent the 2005 season developing their skills on the defensive scout team and will look to make an impact after learning on the job in 2005.

Como and Allen return to their defensive end positions after seeing action in all 12 games during the 2005 season. Como ended the year with 13 tackles including two quarterback sacks. In addition, he added a pair of pass break-ups and three quarterback hurries. Allen, gathered 18 tackles in 2005 including 15 solo stops. His seven sacks last season were fifth-best on the team and represent the most by any returning player on the 2006 team.

Returning to his natural position is sophomore Russell Brorsen who will switch back to defensive end after seeing action in all 12 games last year as a backup tight end and on several special teams units. Brorsen, a gifted and heady athlete, should pick up KU's defensive schemes relatively quickly. He was one of just three true freshman to see the field in 2005.

The Jayhawks will also look for senior John McCoy (11 tackles, one QB sack in 2003) and redshirt sophomore John Larson (two games played in 2005) to provide depth.

Two players -- Caleb Blakesley and Jeff Wheeler -- who were with the program last season as redshirts could provide immediate results on the line. The pair was named co-winners of the George Mrkonjic Award, given annually at the team's awards banquet for Scout Team Defensive Player of the Year.

Freshmen Jamal Greene, Jason Thompson and John White were recruited to provide help in the future and will look to learn the KU system in 2006.

LINEBACKERS

It won't be easy to replace KU's departed trio of all-conference linebackers -- Nick Reid, Banks Floodman and Kevin Kane -- but the Jayhawks still have loads of young talent at the position. Several players with potential star power were used in a backup role during the 2005 season and now must become KU's leaders of the future. Despite lacking a multitude of game-experience, the group should be one of the most athletically gifted linebacking units in the Big 12.

"The one thing the linebackers don't have is a lot of experience," Mangino said. "They're young and they have to learn, but I'm confident that when they get some games under their belts, they will be absolutely fine."

Middle linebacker Mike Rivera returns for his sophomore year after participating in all 12 games last season. The Shawnee Mission, Kan., native recorded 20 total tackles in 2005 and was one of KU's best special teams performers.

Sophomore James Holt was one of three true freshmen to see action last season and displayed an impressive combination of speed and strength. He ended the season with six tackles and also was a standout on special teams.

Senior Eric Washington had 11 total tackles, including one tackle-for-loss, while playing in 11 games after transferring from Minnesota West Community College.

Redshirt sophomore Joe Mortensen played in all 12 games during the 2005 season and finished the year with four tackles.

Brandon Duncan, Ian Handshy, Jake Schermer, Arist Wright and Matt Zeleznak were all with the squad last season working on the scout team. Freshmen Sal Capra, Dakota Lewis and Maxwell Onyegbule will look to develop during their first year on campus.

SECONDARY

Talib and Kemp highlight an improving KU secondary that returns several key performers. Both were named to preseason All-Big 12 teams and Talib earned a spot on the Bronko Nagurski preseason watch list.

Talib, who was named Freshman All-America by Rivals.com after a stellar rookie campaign, finished sixth on the team with 54 total tackles, including four behind the line of scrimmage. The Richardson, Texas, native also recorded two interceptions and led the Jayhawks with eight pass break-ups, while starting nine games.

Kemp, a powerful tackler, ended the 2005 season fifth on the club with 58 tackles, including four tackles-for-loss. He started 11 games last year and, with 35 career contests under his belt, is KU's most experienced player in the secondary.

Junior cornerback Kenneth Thompson joins junior safeties Brian Seymour and Sadiq Muhammed who will each look to see increased playing time this fall after serving in backup roles last season. All three have played key roles in the past on special teams. Sophomore Tang Bacheyie will add depth to the position after spending his first year on campus as a running back.

Mangino also recruited a pair of junior college defensive backs to help solidify the secondary. Cornerback Michael McCoy played the last two seasons at San Bernardino Valley Community College where he collected two interceptions and 10 pass break-ups. Cornerback Blake Bueltel played the last two seasons at Butler County Community College and recorded four interceptions and eight pass break-ups in 2005 for the Grizzlies.

Other defensive backs with the team last year and looking for playing time in 2006 include sophomore Raymond Brown and red-shirt freshman Darrell Stuckey.

Safety Olaitan Oguntodu is a promising prospect who graduated from high school a semester early in order to participate in workouts with KU last spring. Freshmen who were recruited to fill future needs include Phillip Strozier and Anthony Webb.

KICKING GAME

With the return of Scott Webb and Tucker, the Kansas kicking game has an opportunity to rank among the best in the Big 12.

"Both of those guys have made dramatic improvements each and every year they've been here," said Mangino. "We expect those two to perform at a high level in the Big 12 this year and improve on their performances from last season."

Webb, a junior placekicker, returns for his third season at Kansas after connecting on 14-of-19 field goal attempts in 2005 en route to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors from the Associated Press. The Tulsa, Okla., native was accurate on all 11 field goal attempts inside the 40 yard line last year and earned Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors after nailing a game-winning 34-yarder in overtime against Iowa State in KU's regular-season finale.

Senior Dane Broadie and redshirt freshman Alex Hanson were both with the program last season and will serve as backups to Webb.

Tucker averaged 42.9 yards per punt in 2005 and was a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award. He landed 19 punts inside the 20 yard line and forced 15 fair catches. For his efforts, the Katy, Texas, native was an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention selection.

Redshirt freshman Kyle Davis will backup Tucker.

Senior Zack Hood and redshirt freshman Kayl Anderson will handle the long snapping duties.

O-LINE RETURNS INTACT

EXPERIENCED RUNNING GAME

The Jayhawks return more than 60 percent of their rushing offense, including two of the team's top three ball carriers from last year. Senior running back Jon Cornish led the team in 2005 with 780 rushing yards and nine touchdowns, while junior Brandon McAnderson added 102 yards and a score from his fullback position. As a team, the Jayhawks rushed for 1,608 yards in 2005.

SPECIAL TEAMS SHOULD BE SPECIAL

Junior punter Kyle Tucker and junior placekicker Scott Webb are two-year starters who both earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors last year. Tucker was a semifinalist for the 2005 Ray Guy Award and Webb was named Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week after his game-winning field goal vs. Iowa State in overtime that lifted the Jayhawks to a bowl berth.

NEW FACES

Three new assistant coaches -- Mike Mallory (linebackers), former KU quarterback Bill Whittemore (offensive graduate assistant) and Travis Miller (defensive graduate assistant) joined the Jayhawk staff during the offseason.

HISTORICALLY SPEAKING

The 2006 football season will mark KU's 117th year of intercollegiate football. Only 11 NCAA Division IA schools have been playing football longer. Through 116 seasons, Kansas has posted a 536-531-58 mark.

RUSH DEFENSE

The 2005 Kansas rush defense ranked third nationally, allowing just 83.2 yards per game. Nine times during the season the KU defense surrendered less than 100 rushing yards to an opponent (70 vs. Florida Atlantic, 38 vs. La. Tech, 47 at Texas Tech, 35 at Kansas State, 96 vs. Oklahoma, 33 vs. Missouri, 21 vs. Nebraska, 56 vs. Iowa State and 30 vs. Houston).

DID YOU KNOW

After winning four of its last five games, KU was receiving votes in the final AP poll of the 2005 season.

Mark Mangino

Fifth Season At Kansas

As Mark Mangino enters his fifth season as the head coach at the University of Kansas, there's no doubt the Jayhawk football program is headed in the right direction. In just four short years at KU, Mangino has guided the Crimson and Blue to a pair of bowl contests and given the Jayhawk faithful a renewed sense of pride.

Already known around the college football ranks as an outstanding recruiter, Mangino has seen four of his Jayhawks earn Freshman All-America honors and watched as two of his players were named Big 12 Newcomers of the Year.

During the 2005 season, Mangino led the Jayhawks to their first bowl victory since 1995 as the team defeated Houston 42-13 in the Fort Worth Bowl. By appearing in the 2005 bowl game, Mangino became the only coach in KU history to direct his team to a pair of bowl contests in a three-year span.

Mangino's 2005 squad also posted a perfect 6-0 record at KU's Memorial Stadium - the team's first undefeated/untied season at home since 1951. In fact, KU fans backed Mangino and his team like never before. An average of 43,675 fans showed up per game -- an all-time Memorial Stadium record. He also guided the team to its first win over Nebraska since 1968, snapping a 36-game Cornhusker win streak. In addition, Mangino's club won its third consecutive game against Border Showdown rival Missouri.

He coached the 2005 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in senior linebacker Nick Reid, who became the first Kansas player to ever earn the honor. Three of his athletes -- Reid, senior defensive end Charlton Keith and junior all-purpose player Charles Gordon were each named to the All-Big 12 first-team.

In 2004, Mangino guided a relatively inexperienced club to a 4-7 record, despite a schedule that included six games against opponents that were ranked among the Top 25 during the 2004 season. Only two NCAA I teams played more regular-season games against opponents ranked in the Top 25.

For the first time since the 1989 season, Kansas was victorious against both of its biggest rivals -- Missouri and Kansas State. The Jayhawks snapped K-State's 11-game win-streak in the series by defeating the Wildcats 31-28 on Oct. 9 in Lawrence, and later tamed the Tigers 31-14 on Nov. 9 in Columbia, Mo.

Mangino coached his first All-American at Kansas as sophomore cornerback Charles Gordon was named third-team All-America by the Associated Press. After recruiting Gordon to Lawrence as a wide receiver, Mangino made the bold move to switch the Carson, Calif., native, to the defensive side of the ball. In his first full year at the new position, Gordon tied for the NCAA lead with seven interceptions and broke-up a Big 12-best 15 passes.

It was easy for KU fans to see that Mangino's decision to bolster the defense was a wise move. As a team, the Jayhawks recorded 19 interceptions in 2004, the most since the 1987 club had 23. In addition, eight different Jayhawks had at least one interception, and Gordon's seven picks marked the third-best single-season total in school history and the most by one KU player since 1951.

Furthermore, the revamped secondary allowed the Jayhawk rush defense to surrender an average of just 117.6 yards per game on the ground -- the third-best average in school history and the best since 1961.

In addition, Mangino saw two of his players -- Gordon and Reid -- named to the All-Big 12 First Team. Never before had a pair of Jayhawks earned the honor in the same season.

In 2003, Mangino led the Jayhawks to their first bowl appearance since 1995 when the team was selected to participate in the Mazda Tangerine Bowl.

His 2003 team, which finished the season 6-7 overall, collected more victories than any KU

What They're Saying

"Mangino has changed the attitude about Kansas football - both within his program and throughout Lawrence. Once a Big 12 afterthought, Mangino has built the Jayhawks into a mean, tough, gritty football team that opponents know not to take lightly."

Jason King
Kansas City Star

"From December's first bowl win in a decade to the new $31 million football facility that's scheduled to open in 2008, there's something positive happening in Lawrence. And Mangino has been the catalyst, helping make football relevant at a traditional basketball power. Last year's historical shellacking of Nebraska sent notice that the Jayhawks are about the turn the corner with Mangino at the wheel."

CollegeFootballNews.com

"The days of KU being known strictly as a basketball school are coming to an end."

Doug Tucker
Associated Press

"Mark Mangino is one of the greatest stories of persistence in the coaching profession. He has a passion for helping young people and will do a great job for Kansas. I am proud to have been associated with him. He embodies all that is good in the coaching profession."

Jim Tressel
Ohio State Head Coach

"Mark is a very good hire for the University of Kansas. He is very intelligent and a good worker. Mark knows what it takes to develop a successful program, having been part of that both here at Kansas State and at Oklahoma. Mark has a nice family and he has always been a good family man."

squad since the 1995 Jayhawks ended the year with a 10-2 record. Mangino's exciting brand of offense set 12 different single-season school records including most points (384), most first downs (286), most touchdown passes (25) and most yards gained (5,479).

Known around the conference as a dynamic recruiter, Mangino has seen two of his signees named Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year during his short tenure at KU as QB Bill Whittemore and center Joe Vaughn won the award in 2002 and 2003, respectively.

Prior to his arrival in Lawrence, Mangino was one of the primary architects in the rebuilding process at both Oklahoma (1999-01) and Kansas State (1991-98). As assistant head coach and offensive coordinator under Bob Stoops at OU, the Sooners staff took a program that was 5-6 in 1998 and carved out seasons of 7-5 (1999), 13-0 (2000) and 10-2 (2001).

Mangino was the recipient of the 2000 Frank Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in college football in the second of his three seasons as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of Oklahoma.

Throughout his career, Mangino has been associated with football programs which have experienced phenomenal success and has been a key ingredient in building that success during that time. He has been in a leadership role with teams that have qualified for bowl games in nine of the last 11 years, including the 2000 season when the Sooners won the Big 12 Conference championship, finished ranked No. 1 nationally and beat Florida State in the Orange Bowl to win the national title.

During its run to the national championship in 2000, Mangino's Sooner offense ranked seventh nationally in scoring (39.0) and 13th in pass offense (294.7). In addition, OU averaged more than 427 yards per game in total offense for the second consecutive season. Under the influence of Mangino as offensive coordinator, the Sooners ranked second in the conference in pass offense at the conclusion of both the 2000 and 2001 seasons.

During his three years on the Sooner staff, the OU offense scored 31 or more points in 26 of 37 games and produced 40 or more points 14 times. The Sooners averaged 34.1 points per game during those three seasons.

Mangino and Dr. Jerry Punch visit on the field following KU's 42-13 win over Houston in the 2005 Fort Worth Bowl.

At Kansas State, Mangino served as recruiting coordinator, offensive line coach, run game coordinator, and in 1998, was appointed assistant head coach. The season prior to his arrival in Manhattan, the Wildcats posted a 5-6 record. Over the next eight seasons, K-State went 71-23-1 with six consecutive nine-plus win seasons and played in six straight bowl games.

Overall, Kansas State and Oklahoma was a combined 101-30-1 and ranked in the top 25 nationally in eight of 11 seasons during Mangino's involvement on the coaching staff.

Prior to his stint at Kansas State, Mangino worked one season as head football coach at Ellwood City (Pa.) High School. He spent three seasons (1987-89) as offensive line coach and as offensive coordinator at Geneva (Pa.) College, where he helped that program to its three best seasons (combined 24-9) in modern school history. The 1987 Geneva squad reached the NAIA national semifinals.

Mangino also coached two seasons (1985-86) at Youngstown State, including one under current Ohio State head coach Jim Tressel and was an assistant coach at his alma mater, New Castle (Pa.) High School for four seasons.

Mangino and his wife, Mary Jane, have a daughter, Samantha, a graduate of the University of Kansas, and a son, Tommy, a senior at Washburn University. Samantha and her husband, David Hardy, reside in Fairway, Kan.

"Mark is a very disciplined and thorough coach who has the fire and the emotion you need to motivate a team. His track record at OU and Kansas State is one of great success. That's a reflection of his leadership."

Nick Quartaro

Associate Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Nick Quartaro enters his fifth season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Kansas. In addition, he was promoted to Associate Head Coach in 2004.

In 2005, Quartaro guided an offense which averaged 40 rushing yards per game more than the previous year. Five members of KU's offense -- WR Charles Gordon, RB Clark Green, OL David Ochoa, WR Mark Simmons and OL Bob Whitaker earned All-Big 12 accolades.

In 2004, Quartaro helped several offensive players elevate their play, including wide receiver Brandon Rideau who is currently with the Cleveland Browns.

During the 2003 campaign, Quartaro helped orchestrate a KU offense that set 12 different single-season school records including most points (384), most touchdown passes (25) and most total yards gained (5,479).

In 2002, Quartaro was instrumental in the development of quarterback Bill Whittemore, who was named Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year.

Prior to arriving in Lawrence, Quartaro was an integral part of the rebuilding processes at Iowa State and Kansas State as an assistant coach, and at Fordham and Drake as a head coach. He successfully altered the record of a formerly winless football program at Fordham, and was associate head coach and worked with Kansas State's tight ends and special teams in the Wildcats' gridiron turnaround.

Quartaro, who also served as wide receivers coach at ISU, was instrumental in helping the Cyclones achieve back-to-back appearances in bowl games his last two seasons and the best combined record (16-7) in 23 years. His influence was felt in ISU's 9-3 record, top 25 ranking and victory over Pittsburgh in the 2000 Insight.com Bowl.

Quartaro was named head coach at Fordham University in 1994 and spent four years building a winning program. In 1997, Quartaro's last season, the Rams finished with their first-ever winning record in the Patriot League, a 4-2 mark, good for third place.

Prior to his appointment at Fordham, Quartaro had a five-year tenure as part of the original staff of Bill Snyder at Kansas State. Elevated to assistant head coach in his second year and associate head coach in his third season, Quartaro helped K-State to its first bowl game in the Snyder era in the 1993 Copper Bowl. He also had assignments as tight ends and special teams coach for the Wildcats.

Quartaro served as head coach at Drake University for three years (1986-88) and guided the Bulldogs to a 7-3 mark in his third and final year. He also worked five years (1981-85) at Northwestern under former Minnesota Vikings head coach Dennis Green assisting with the secondary, the defensive line, and coordinating the special teams and coached future 14-year NFL punter John Kidd and special teams standout Steve Tasker of the Buffalo Bills.

Quartaro also worked as a high school head coach in Iowa and served as an assistant at Hobart College in Geneva, N.Y.

After starting his college playing career as a defensive end/kicker at Xavier (Ohio), Quartaro transferred to Iowa and became the Hawkeyes' kicker for three seasons. He finished his career as Iowa's second all-time leading scorer and was named academic all-conference as a junior.

Quartaro and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Andria and Tony.

Bill Young, a 37-year coaching veteran including 20 seasons as a defensive coordinator, is in his fifth season as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at the University of Kansas. Young, 59, joined the Kansas staff in December 2002 after serving as defensive line coach with the Detroit Lions in 2001.

Last season, Young oversaw the development of a defense which finished the season as the top run-stopping unit in the Big 12 and eighth among all NCAA I teams. In nine of KU's 12 games during the 2005 season, the opposition's run-game failed to collect 100 yards rushing as a team. After KU's win over Missouri on Oct. 29, Young was awarded the Master Coaches Survey game ball and was named Coordinator of the Week by Rivals.com.

In 2004, Young directed a much-improved defense that led the Big 12 with 27 takeaways, including a league-best 19 interceptions. Cornerback Charles Gordon, in his first full season under Young's tutelage, tied for the national lead with seven picks. In addition, the defense allowed an average of 117.6 rushing yards per game -- the third-best single-season average in school history and the lowest since 1961. The biggest improvement in the overall defense occurred on third downs, as the opposition converted just 29.9 percent of its chances -- only two Big 12 teams in 2004 were more effective at forcing fourth down.

Prior to his stint in the NFL, Young worked three seasons as defensive coordinator at Southern California. While at USC in 1999, his defense led the nation in total takeaways, with the Trojans also leading the conference in rushing defense and turnover margin (third nationally). His USC defense in 1998 was No. 1 in the conference in total defense, pass efficiency defense (third nationally) and scoring defense. It was also ranked second in the country in forced turnovers.

In addition to his three years at USC, his stints as defensive coordinator came at Tulsa in 1983-84, at Ohio State from 1988-95 and at Oklahoma in 1996-97. Much of Young's coaching career (1980-95) has come serving under former Kansas assistant and former Ohio State head coach, John Cooper.

Their association began in 1980 at Tulsa, where Young was hired as defensive line coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator three years later. He moved with Cooper to Arizona State, where he was the Sun Devils' defensive line coach from 1985-87 before following Cooper to Ohio State in 1988, where he led the Buckeyes' defense for eight seasons before taking over the defense at Oklahoma.

Young's first two coaching assignments came at his alma mater, Oklahoma State, from 1976-78 and for one season as Iowa State's defensive tackles coach in 1979. Young played outside linebacker and defensive end at Oklahoma State from 1965-67, and led the Cowboys in interceptions in 1965.

During his 27 years in college coaching, Young has helped elevate 36 players to the NFL, including seven players apiece during his stints at Ohio State, Arizona State and Tulsa, and five apiece while at Oklahoma State and Oklahoma.

Among future NFL players he helped coach are Dexter Manley (Oklahoma State), Dan Saleumua and Trace Armstrong (Arizona State), Alonzo Spellman, Dan Wilkinson and Mike Vrabel (Ohio State), Barron Tanner and Kelly Gregg (Oklahoma), David McMillan, Jermial Ashley and Charlton Keith (Kansas).

Prior to his college coaching career, Young spent six seasons on the prep level at two high schools in Oklahoma. Young was an Academic All-Big Eight selection as a senior in 1967 and earned his bachelor's degree in education that year. He then went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education at Central Oklahoma in 1971.

Young and his wife, Lawana, reside in Lawrence.

Recruiting Coordinator/Tight Ends

Brandon Blaney, who was among the first staff appointments made by Kansas head coach Mark Mangino in 2002, is in his fifth season with the University of Kansas football coaching staff. In February, Blaney was named the team's recruiting coordinator after serving as assistant recruiting coordinator since 2003. He also serves as the team's tight ends coach.

Last season, Blaney oversaw the development of tight end Derek Fine who finished fifth on the team with 22 catches for 244 yards and a touchdown. Off the field, Blaney orchestrated one of KU's highest-ranked recruiting classes, which included three of the top four-rated high school players from the state of Kansas.

In 2004, Blaney guided the efforts of tight end Lyonel Anderson who finished fourth on the team with 33 receptions and second with 328 yards receiving. During the spring of 2005, Anderson signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Before arriving in Lawrence, Blaney also played a part on two coaching staffs that led teams (Youngstown State and Oklahoma) to national championships.

Blaney is a 1999 graduate of Youngstown State where he served four years (1995-98) on the coaching staff as a student assistant, working with the offensive line and special teams.

He was on the Youngstown staff in 1997 and played a meaningful role in helping the Penguins win the NCAA Division I-AA national championship.

A native of Lamar, Mo., Blaney worked in the spring of 1999 as a graduate assistant coach at Youngstown State.

He moved to the University of Oklahoma for the 1999 season, and worked alongside Coach Mangino as an offensive line graduate assistant coach for two seasons.

Blaney earned his second national championship ring in helping the Sooners to an undefeated season and the 2000 national championship.

Blaney spent the 2001 season as a graduate assistant, working with the linebackers, at Ohio State where he was reunited with former Youngstown State head coach Jim Tressel.

Blaney and the former Sarah Lingeman, were married July 9, 2006 in Lee, New Hampshire. The couple resides in Lawrence with their dogs, Anzac and Sydney.

Clint Bowen

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Recruiting Zones

Kansas City, Eastern Kansas
East Texas, Kansas Junior Colleges

Former KU standout Clint Bowen is in his sixth season on the Jayhawk coaching staff and his fourth as the team's safeties coach. In addition, Bowen was promoted to Co-Defensive Coordinator in February 2006. Prior to his promotion, Bowen spent five years as KU's special teams coordinator.

Last season, Bowen guided KU's kickoff coverage unit which ended the season as the top coverage team in the Big 12. In addition, KU's kick return (5th Big 12/20.3 yards per return) and punt return (4th Big 12, 12.1 yards per return) units both ranked near the top of the conference.

In 2004, Bowen directed the team's kickoff return unit which ranked third in the Big 12 by averaging 21.8 yards per return. KU's kickoff coverage unit also ranked third in the league after allowing just 17.2 yards per return.

Bowen, who worked with the running backs during 2002, is no stranger to Kansas football. A former defensive back with the Jayhawks in the early 1990s, he paid his dues as a graduate assistant on the KU football staff.

A native of Lawrence and prep star at Lawrence High School, Bowen worked as a defensive graduate assistant coach at KU in 1998 and 1999. He served as assistant director of football operations during the 2000 season.

In addition to his experience at KU, Bowen served one season (1997) as a graduate assistant at the University of Minnesota with his college coach, Glen Mason.

He also gained valuable leadership experience while serving as head coach of the Topeka (Kan.) Knights (IFL) football team in 1999.

Bowen was a hard-hitting defensive back for the Jayhawks in 1992-93 following one season at Butler County Community College. He led the KU defense in total tackles in 1993 with 114 total stops, which ranks as the third-most tackles by a Jayhawk defensive back in school history.

Bowen was instrumental in helping the Jayhawks to an 8-4 final record, a No. 22 national ranking and a win over Brigham Young in the 1992 Aloha Bowl. He was the recipient of the Willie Pless Tackler of the Year Award following his senior season in 1993.

He is the product of a football family. His father (Charley Bowen) was a two-time high school All-American at Lawrence High School and his older brother (Charley, Jr.) was a four-year letterwinner as a defensive back for the Jayhawks who also played in the Arena Football League.

Bowen and his wife Kristie have a two-year old son, Baylor.

Special Teams Coordinator/Cornerbacks

Earnest Collins joined the Kansas football coaching staff in February 2003 and is in his fourth season as KU's cornerbacks coach. Last February, Collins also was named KU's special teams coordinator.

In 2005, Collins oversaw the development of redshirt freshman cornerback Aqib Talib who earned Freshman All-America honors from The Sporting News and Rivals.com after collecting 54 total tackles (45 solo) and leading the team with eight pass breakups. He was instrumental in the growth of KU's pass defense which finished the season third among all Big 12 teams with 15 interceptions.

Under Collins' guidance in 2004, the KU secondary ranked nearly 50 spots higher nationally as the Jayhawks recorded a pass efficiency defense of 113.9 during the 2004 season after allowing a rating of 132.1 in 2003. In just his first full season of working with Collins, cornerback Charles Gordon tied for the national lead in 2004 with seven interceptions.

Collins joined the Jayhawk coaching staff after serving as secondary and special teams coordinator for the University of Northern Colorado from 2000-2002.

While at UNC, several players excelled on the field under Collins, including Hassan Rashad, who took home All-North Central Conference first-team honors as a defensive back, while both Reed Doughty and Nick Sims were named to the league's second-team as members of the UNC secondary. In addition, Eric Nelson was an All-

NCC first-team utility player and led the league in kick return average with a 27.2 average per return in 2001. Collins also coached Vincent Jackson who led the conference and ranked third in the nation as a punt returner with an average of 18 yards per return in 2001.

A 1996 graduate of UNC, Collins returned to his alma mater in December of 1999 following a four-year coaching stint at Northwest Missouri State University. While with the Bearcats, he helped the school to back-to-back NCAA II national championships in 1998 and 1999.

Collins, a standout defensive back and punt returner at UNC from 1991-94, earned second-team All-North Central Conference honors following his senior season. A four-year starter, Collins holds UNC records for punt return yards in a career (967) and in a season (497). He also ranks fifth on the single-game punt return yard list with 114 yards against North Dakota State in 1994. After his playing career, Collins spent one year as a student assistant on the UNC staff.

A native of Denver, Colo., Collins earned his bachelor's degree from UNC in 1996 and his master's from Northwest Missouri State in 1998.

John Reagan, who was hired at Kansas prior to the 2005 football season, is in his second year as KU's offensive line coach and offensive run game coordinator.

In 2005, Reagan helped execute KU's rushing offense which ended the season averaging 134 yards per game and nearly four yards per carry. The year before his arrival, the Jayhawks averaged just 94.0 yards per game and less than three yards per carry.

Reagan had two offensive linemen -- junior David Ochoa and junior Bob Whitaker -- earn All-Big 12 honors during his first year at KU. In addition, senior Matt Thompson was named second-team Academic All-District by ESPN the Magazine.

Reagan, who spent the 2003-04 seasons as the offensive line coach at the United States Air Force Academy before his arrival in Lawrence, also assisted with several special teams units at AFA, including the extra point and field goal teams.

During Reagan's first year in Colorado Springs, the offensive line featured Falcon players Brett Huyser, Jesse Underbakke and Blane Neufeld who each earned All-Mountain West Conference honors. In 2004, Reagan took over a young, inexperienced group of linemen and molded them into one of the top offensive lines in the MWC -- two athletes, John Wilson and Ross Weaver earned All-MWC honors.

Reagan was the offensive line coach for one season at Temple before taking his position at the Academy. He directed the defensive line at Temple for two years, before his switch to the opposite side of the ball.

John, Carrie, Kaitlyn and Daniel Reagan

In 2001, Reagan directed Temple's defensive front four to a productive campaign that saw the school ranked 19th nationally in total defense. In addition, defensive tackle Dan Klecko became Temple's first unanimous All-Big East honoree while defensive end Raheem Brock was drafted in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Reagan joined the Owls' coaching staff in February 2000 after instructing the Akron defensive line in 1999. Before coaching at Akron, Reagan was the tight ends coach and offensive tackle coach at Army in 1998. In 1997, he held the same position as an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania. Reagan spent the 1996 season as an offensive graduate assistant at Oklahoma State. He began his coaching career in 1994 as the assistant offensive line and fullback coach at Albany, where he remained until joining the Cowboys in 1996.

Reagan, a native of Delmar, N.Y., graduated from Syracuse in 1994 with a dual major in exercise science and sport psychology. He was a three-year starter at center for the Orangemen. As a senior captain in 1993, Reagan earned the Ben Schwartzwalder Most Exemplary Football Player Award after leading his team to a 26-22 victory over Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl. While with the Orangemen, he also competed in the 1992 Hall of Fame Bowl when Syracuse defeated Ohio State 24-17. Reagan was twice named to the GTE Academic All-America team (1992-93) and was presented with the Toyota Leadership Award following his senior season.

Reagan and his wife, Carrie, have a daughter, Kaitlyn and a son, Daniel.

Earle Mosley

Running Backs

Running backs coach Earle Mosley, who has experience at both the NFL and collegiate levels, joined the Kansas staff prior to the 2005 season after five years as an assistant coach with the Chicago Bears.

Under his guidance in 2005, KU's running game improved dramatically from the previous season. KU's backs averaged 134 rushing yards per game -- 40 yards per game higher than the 2004 season. The team's top two running backs -- senior Clark Green (4.3 yards per carry) and junior Jon Cornish (5.8 yards per carry) steadily improved under Mosley's guidance and gave the Jayhawks a solid one-two punch in the backfield.

With the Chicago Bears, Mosley coached the running backs from 1999 to 2005. Under Mosley's tutelage in 2001, Bears running back Anthony Thomas broke the club's rookie rushing record by gaining 1,183 yards en route to NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors -- the first time a Bears player had won the award since former KU great Gale Sayers earned the distinction in 1965.

Prior to his appointment with the Bears, Mosley was an assistant coach at the collegiate level, serving on staffs at Stanford (1997-98), Notre Dame (1992-96), Temple (1988-92), Northwestern (1984-88), Rutgers (1980-83) and West Chester State University (1979). During his time as an assistant, Mosley worked for some of the best head coaches in the business, including Lou Holtz (Notre Dame), Dennis Green (Northwestern) and Tyrone Willingham (Stanford).

While at Notre Dame, Mosley coached three 1,000-yard rushers: Reggie Brooks, Lee Becton and Autry Denson.

He also coached future NFL star Jerome Bettis while with the Fighting Irish.

At Rutgers, Mosley coached former Kansas City Chiefs defensive back and five time Pro Bowl selection, Deron Cherry.

During his time as an assistant coach, Mosley has received numerous awards. While at Northwestern in 1985, he was given the Delaware County Coaches Association "Appreciation Award" for service and support. At Rutgers in 1983, he was given the Washington D.C. Coaches Association "Appreciation Award" for service and support of their All-Star football clinic.

Mosley earned a bachelor of science degree from West Chester State University where he was a three-year letter-winner on the football field for the Golden Rams. As a senior, Mosely was a team captain and was a first-team All-Pennsylvania Conference selection at defensive back. He was inducted into the Dr. W. Glenn Killinger Foundation West Chester State University Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

Mosley spent two years as a member of the United States Army and served one tour of duty in Vietnam with the 1st Air Cavalry Division Battalion, 1st of the 5th Charlie Company.

Mosley received his first head coaching position in 1975 at Chester (Pa.) High School. During his time at CHS, he was named Coach of the Year by the Delaware County Daily Times.

Mosley and his wife, Kimmy, reside in Lawrence.

Tim Beck

Wide Receivers

Tim Beck, one of the most respected high school coaches in the state of Texas, joined the Kansas staff in 2005 after serving three seasons as the head football coach at Summit High School in Mansfield, Texas. He coaches KU's wide receivers.

Last season, Beck oversaw the development of wide receiver Mark Simmons, who led the Jayhawks in catches (44), receiving yards (631), yards per reception (14.3) and yards per game (52.6). Simmons, a native of DeSoto, Texas, finished his playing days as KU's all-time leader in receptions and was second all-time with 2,161 receiving yards.

Beck was the 2003 District Coach of the Year after leading Summit High School to its first-ever playoff appearance and district championship. In 2004, SHS advanced to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs after posting a 9-4 record and winning its second straight District 4-5A title. The Jaguars finished the season with the top-ranked defense in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex.

Before accepting the job at Summit High School, Beck was the head coach at R.L. Turner High School in Carrollton, Texas, from 1999-01 where he led THS to back-to-back playoff appearances for the first time in 25 years. He guided the team to a 7-4 record in 2000 and a 7-5 record in 2001, giving the school consecutive winning seasons for the first time in a quarter of a century. Beck was named the district Coach of the Year in 2000 and helped establish some solid groundwork for the school that had won a total of 13 games in the 10 years prior to his arrival.

Beck served one season as the offensive coordinator at Missouri State where he worked from 1996-98. During his final season with the Bears, the MSU offense racked up 4,542 total yards -- the fourth best single-season mark in school history. He was hired at Missouri State after leading Saguaro High School (Scottsdale, Ariz.) to the 1995 4A state championship -- the first state title in the school's 30-year history. In 1994, Beck was named the state's regional High School Coach of the Year after leading the team to an 8-3 record and an appearance in the regional finals. Over his final two and a half years at SHS, his teams posted a record of 23-4. Prior to his arrival at the school, the team's record from 1988-92 was just 5-43.

Beck was a graduate assistant coach at Kansas State from 1991-92 where he served as wide receivers coach and assistant quarterbacks coach. The Wildcats finished the season with a 7-4 overall record and a fourth-place finish in the Big Eight Conference. In 1990, he coached the outside linebackers and punters at Illinois State University after serving two seasons as an assistant football coach at Miramar High School in Miramar, Fla.

Beck, a former collegiate quarterback, wide receiver and punter, is a 1988 graduate of Central Florida where he majored in liberal studies. He graduated from Cardinal Mooney High School in his hometown of Youngstown, Ohio, where he starred in football, basketball and baseball.

Beck and his wife, Tamara, have a son, Jordan, and a daughter, Haylie Marie.

Linebackers

Mike Mallory is in his first year at Kansas after being named an assistant coach in 2006. He will coach the team's linebackers.

Prior to his arrival in Lawrence, Mallory served five seasons as an assistant at Illinois, including two years as the team's defensive coordinator.

"Mike is a highly respected coach that brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our staff," KU head coach Mark Mangino said. "He is a perfect fit for our young linebackers and defensive scheme. We are very pleased to have Mike join our coaching staff."

Mallory started coaching the Illinois linebackers in 2003 after spending the previous two years with the safeties. The move was a natural one, affording him the opportunity to work with the position that earned him All-America honors as a player at Michigan. In 2003, he coached middle linebacker Matt Sinclair to honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors.

During his first two years at Illinois, Mallory oversaw the team's safeties. In 2001, he worked with the senior safety duo of Bobby Jackson and Muhammad Abdullah, who both earned All-Big Ten honors.

arrived at Illinois following one season as linebackers coach with the Maryland Terrapins. Prior to his stint at Maryland, Mallory was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Northern Illinois. In 1999, he helped guide the Huskies to a 5-6 record, their best since 1992, while posting the Mid-American Conference's third-best pass efficiency defense.

In addition to his defensive coordinator experience at NIU, Mallory also held the same position at Rhode Island from 1993-95. With 20 years of experience in collegiate coaching, Mallory began his career as a graduate assistant at Indiana in 1986, assisting in the Hoosiers back-to-back bowl appearances. He then went on to Kent State where he was the linebackers and defensive line coach for three seasons. In 1991, Mallory became the linebackers coach at Eastern Illinois.

Mallory was a four-year letterwinner and two-time All-Big Ten selection for Michigan where he participated in four bowl games including the 1983 Rose Bowl and 1986 Fiesta Bowl. He was also a two-year captain, the 1984 team MVP and a 1985 Butkus Award finalist. He graduated from Michigan in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in sports administration and began pursuing graduate work in sports management at Indiana University in 1986-87.

Mallory is a graduate of Delkalb (Ill.) High School, where he was an all-state performer in 1980.

Chris Dawson

Director of Strength and Conditioning

Chris Dawson, a native of Houston, Texas, is currently in his fourth season as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Jayhawk football team. He coordinates all activities within the Anderson Family Strength and Conditioning Center while working directly with strength and nutritional efforts of the football team.

Dawson, who worked the 2001 and 2002 football seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach for the University of Minnesota, was named to the position at KU in February of 2003.

Dawson was hired by Minnesota in February of 2001 after spending five years at the University of Oklahoma. While with the Sooners, Dawson worked with the football and men's basketball teams. Before taking the position at Minnesota, he spent three months with the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL and two months with the Dallas Cowboys as a strength and conditioning intern.

Dawson played linebacker for the Sooners from 1992-94, and participated in a pair of postseason contests -- the 1993 John Hancock Bowl and the 1994 Copper Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in business management in 1995 and his master's degree in business administration in 1999, both from OU.

Dawson credits his success in coaching to some great mentors at Oklahoma. He learned under Joe Juraszek, who was the strength coach at OU during his playing days and is the current head strength coach for the Dallas Cowboys. He also received valuable guidance from Blair Prince and Jerry Schmidt, the current strength coach at Oklahoma.

Several strength and conditioning coaches who have worked under Dawson -- including Steve Gortmaker (South Carolina), Orlando Smith (South Carolina) and Dwayne Chandler (Minnesota) -- continue to work with NCAA football teams.

Dawson has assisted the strength and conditioning efforts of several NFL players, including all-pro tight end Stephen Alexander (San Diego), William Barteel (Kansas City), Quentin Griffin (Denver Broncos), Travian Smith (Oakland) and Roy Williams (Dallas).

TROPHY GAMES

Kansas has two traditional trophy games which it competes in each season. The Governor's Cup, established in 1969 by then-Kansas governor Robert Docking, goes annually to the winner of the KU-Kansas State game. Kansas has won the Governor's Cup 17 times since it was established (there was one tie). In addition, Kansas and Missouri compete each year for the Marching Band Drum. The Jayhawks have been victorious in each of the last three contests against Missouri.

Ed Harvey and Homer Floyd Broke Racial Barriers

Ed Harvey became the first African-American to play football at Kansas, earning his "K" letter as a member of the 1893 Jayhawk team. Harvey's parents were born into slavery and later escaped Quantrill's raid in Lawrence. They became share croppers and were able to put their three sons through college.

It was 62 years later when Homer Floyd, a standout at Massillon (Ohio) High School, broke the modern-day color barrier to play football at KU. Floyd enrolled at Kansas at the urging of his high school coach, Chuck Mather, who served as the Jayhawk head coach from 1954-57.

Floyd, a team captain in 1958, started all 30 games of his career (1955-58) on offense and defense. He led the Jayhawks in rushing yardage all three years and earned all-conference honors as a senior. Floyd later played for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League and then served as executive director of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission.

THE WILLIE PLESS TACKLER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Willie Pless, the all-time leading tackler at Kansas and the Big Eight, was honored in 1985 with the establishment of an annual award in his name. The Willie Pless Tackler of the Year Award is presented to the KU leader in tackles each season. The award was established as a gift from Gene, Bernie and Todd Morgan of Kansas City. The Morgans worked with Chuck Vogt of All-Star Trophy in Kansas City in the creation of the total design concept of the award.

1890 Sherman Scores First KU Touchdown

Kansas played its first official football game, losing to Baker University in Baldwin, Kan., 22-9. Right halfback A.F. Sherman scored KU's first touchdown on a punt return. An account of the game in the Weekly University Courier described Sherman's TD: "Hudson punted the ball down the field. Sherman managed to get the ball and made a phenomenal run for the first Kansas score ever made in football."

1899 Kansas has First Perfect Season

In his only season as head coach at Kansas, Fielding H. Yost led the Jayhawks to a 10-0 record, which represents one of just two perfect seasons in the 116 years of football competition. KU outscored its opponents 280-37 and averaged 28 points per game. Yost, who later gained fame as head coach at Michigan, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951.

1908 First Conference Championship

The Jayhawks finished with a 9-0 record, outscoring their opponents 131-20, and claimed the school's first conference championship by finishing with a 4-0 record in the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Conference.

1912 KU Defeats MU in First Homecoming

Playing its first Homecoming game before a crowd of 9,000 fans at McCook Field, KU downed rival Missouri, 12-3. Jayhawk coach Arthur Mosse used a new offensive alignment, known as the "Minnesota Shift" to confuse the Tigers that afternoon.

1920 Phog Allen Builds a Football Stadium

Legendary KU basketball coach Phog Allen, in his only season as head football coach, rallied his team from a 20-0 halftime deficit to a 20-20 tie against Nebraska. Leading the team was senior quarterback Dutch Lonborg and halfback John Bunn, two individuals who were later inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame. The following Monday, students and faculty gathered to celebrate the comeback and more than $200,000 was pledged over a three-day period to build a concrete stadium to replace McCook Field, home for KU football since 1892.

1921 Jayhawks Open Play in Memorial Stadium

In the first game in Memorial Stadium, the Jayhawks defeated Kansas State, 21-7, in front of 5,160 fans. When the stadium opened, the east and west side stands were completed with a capacity of 22,000. The final game of the 1921 season saw KU down Missouri, 15-9, before 15,480 fans.

1931

KU Plays Haskell in
First Home Night Game

On a Friday night, Oct. 2, Kansas hosted the Haskell Indians in the first-ever home night game in Jayhawk football history. The concept for a night game came from KU athletics director Phog Allen, who was able to transport portable lights that were borrowed from Haskell Stadium (also in Lawrence) and put them in place at Memorial Stadium. In front of 11,000 fans, Haskell surprised KU with a 6-0 victory.

1947

Evans and Schnellbacher:
First Two All-Americans

Led by KU's first two All-America selections - halfback Ray Evans and end Otto Schnellbacher - the Jayhawks finished the season with an 8-1-2 record, tied for first in the conference and capped the season by playing Georgia Tech in the 1948 Orange Bowl. It marked KU's first appearance in a postseason bowl game. Among the victories that season for head coach George Sauer was an 86-6 win against South Dakota State, which represents the most points a KU team has ever scored in a single game. KU finished the year ranked 12th in the final Associated Press poll.

1960

Jayhawks Upset a
No. 1-Ranked Team

The Jayhawks faced one of the most challenging schedules in school history, facing three teams (Syracuse, Iowa and Missouri) ranked No. 1 in the nation. KU lost early in the season to Syracuse (14-7) and Iowa (21-7), but the elite backfield combination of John Hadl, Curtis McClinton, Doyle Schick and Bert Coan helped lead the Jayhawks to a 23-7 upset win versus then No. 1-ranked Missouri. The win was later forfeited when it was determined that Coan had received a free plane ride to the College Football All-Star Game in Chicago from a KU alum.

1963

Sayers Scampers
for NCAA Record

Hall of Fame halfback Gale Sayers put his name in the college football record book by breaking loose on a 99-yard run against Nebraska in Lincoln, the longest run from scrimmage at that time in NCAA history. Only four other backs (including KU's Eric Vann) have accomplished a run of that length in the history of college football.

1967

A Coaching Staff
of Excellence

After finishing with a 5-5 record in his first season as head coach in 1967, Pepper Rodgers assembled one of the greatest coaching staffs in KU history to begin the 1968 season. The staff included several assistants who would later achieve fame as head coaches, including John Cooper (Tulsa, Arizona State and Ohio State), Dick Tomey (Arizona), Terry Donahue (UCLA), the late Dave McLain (Wisconsin) and Don Fambrough (Kansas). The staff also included Doug Weaver (former athletics director at Georgia Tech and Michigan State) and Larry Travis (former athletics director at Kansas State and Western Carolina).

1968

Rodgers Takes KU
to Orange Bowl

Under the guidance of coach Pepper Rodgers, KU came within five points of an undefeated season and a victory in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks tied for first in the Big Eight and finished 9-2 with losses to Oklahoma (27-23) and Penn State (15-14) in the Orange Bowl. Among the standouts were quarterback Bobby Douglass and fullback John Riggins.

1973 A Cardiac Season

The Jayhawks experienced a cardiac season with six games decided by two points or less -- the most games decided by that margin in NCAA history. KU finished the year with a 7-4-1 record, winning three of those close encounters, and played North Carolina State in the Liberty Bowl.

1975 Cromwell Guides KU to Upset of OU

Kansas defeated No. 2 Oklahoma in Norman, 23-3, to end the Sooners' 28-game winning streak and 37-game unbeaten string. Earlier in the season, quarterback Nolan Cromwell set a new NCAA record for rushing yards by quarterbacks with 294 yards on 28 carries in a 20-0 win against Oregon State.

1991 Tuxedo Tony Rushes for 396 Yards

Running back "Tuxedo" Tony Sands set an NCAA single-game record by rushing for 396 yards on 58 carries in a 53-29 win against Missouri in Lawrence. Sands was later named Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Eight Conference.

1992 First Bowl Win in 31 Years

Head coach Glen Mason guided KU to its first bowl win in 31 years as the Jayhawks defeated Brigham Young, 23-10, in the 1992 Aloha Bowl. Led by defensive linemen Dana Stubblefield and Gilbert Brown, along with quarterback Chip Hilleary, KU finished the season with an 8-4 record and placed third in the Big Eight Conference.

1995 Surprise Team of College Football

Picked to finish fifth in the Big Eight preseason polls, the Jayhawks were one of the surprise teams of college football with a 10-2 season and a win over UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Along the way, KU defeated two ranked teams (Colorado and Oklahoma) on the road. The season ended with a twist of drama as head coach Glen Mason announced just prior to the bowl game that he was leaving after the UCLA encounter to become head coach at Georgia. Mason later changed his mind and stayed as head coach, informing his team on the morning of the Aloha Bowl. KU cruised to a 51-30 victory.

1997 Kansas Nabs 500th Victory

Terry Allen was on the sidelines for his second conference victory as head coach at KU and the school's 500th win in school history as the Jayhawks downed Oklahoma, 20-17.

2005 Mangino Leads Jayhawks to Second Bowl Game in 3 Years

Mark Mangino became the first head coach in KU history to lead his team to two bowl games in a three-year span as the team faced Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl. KU clobbered the Cougars, 42-13, and quarterback Jason Swanson was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

DR. JAMES NAISMITH INFLUENCED THE GAME OF FOOTBALL

The man credited with inventing the game of basketball - Dr. James Naismith (right) - also had a significant impact on the development of football. Naismith took a football and cut it lengthwise and placed it over his head to protect his ears as a football player at Springfield College. Thus, the first football helmet was invented.

Naismith was hired by the University of Kansas in 1898 as director of physical education on the recommendation of legendary football coach Amos Alonzo Stagg. He retired from active teaching in 1937 after 39 years as a member of the KU faculty.

All-Americans

RAY EVANS • QB/RB/DB

1947 ALL-AMERICAN

Ray Evans, KU's first All-America selection (along with Otto Schnellbacher), qualifies as one of the greatest athletes in Kansas history. Evans is the only player in NCAA history to lead the nation in both passing (1,117 yards) and interceptions (10) in the same season (1942). His single-season interception mark, in fact, still remains a KU record. In addition to being an All-American in football, Evans was also a two-time selection as a Helms Foundation basketball All-American for head coach Phog Allen. He is the only athlete in KU history to have both his football jersey number (42) and basketball jersey (15) retired. Evans was a key performer in helping the Jayhawks to an 8-1-2 record, a first-place tie in the Big Six Conference and a spot in the 1948 Orange Bowl his senior season. Evans once owned the NCAA record of consecutive passing attempts (60) without an interception. He played professionally for one season with Pittsburgh.

OTTO SCHNELLBACHER • WR

1947 ALL-AMERICAN

Known as the "Double Threat from Sublette," Otto Schnellbacher excelled during his days as an athlete at Kansas in both football and basketball. Schnellbacher served as a team co-captain of the 1947 Jayhawk team that won a share of the conference title and earned a spot in the Orange Bowl. He is one of just three KU athletes to serve as a captain in both football and basketball. A two-time All-Big Six selection, Schnellbacher was credited with 58 career pass receptions for 1,069 yards and both marks stood as school records for 22 years. He averaged 18.4 yards per reception. Schnellbacher was a regular in 1942 and had his career put on hold during World War II. A four-time all-conference selection in basketball, Schnellbacher played both football and basketball professionally. He played football four seasons with the New York Yankees of the All-America Football Conference and the New York Giants of the NFL. He intercepted 34 passes and was named All-Pro defensive back three times before retiring after the 1951 season.

GEORGE MRKONIC • OT/DT/P

1951 ALL-AMERICAN

George Mrkonic teamed with Oliver Spencer to anchor one of the great lines in Kansas football history during the early 1950s. Mrkonic, a two-time (1950-51) all-conference selection, played left guard on offense and defensive tackle. Mrkonic also handled punting duties during his KU career and led the Jayhawks in punting statistics in 1951. During his three years in the lineup, Kansas compiled a combined 21-9 record, including an 8-2 mark in 1951 and 7-3 record in 1952. Mrkonic was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game in 1952 and had a brief stint in professional football as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles. He also played one season in the Canadian Football League.

GIL REICH • QB/HB/DB

1952 ALL-AMERICAN

Although he played just one season at Kansas after transferring from the United States Military Academy, Gil Reich quickly established himself as one of the most determined performers in Jayhawk history. He was a standout as a cornerback, excelling in run support and as a punt returner. Reich earned all-conference and All-America honors for his performance as a defensive back. In addition, Reich split time as the starting quarterback with Jerry Robertson. He accounted for 428 yards in total offense and was credited with five touchdown passes. He averaged 17.2 yards on 19 punt returns and also served as the Jayhawks' punter and kicked extra points. Reich was also a two-sport standout, playing a significant role on the Jayhawks' 1952-53 basketball team. As a starting guard, Reich helped direct the Jayhawks to the 1953 National Championship game -- a 69-68 loss to Indiana.

OLIVER SPENCER • OT

1952 ALL-AMERICAN

A dominating blocker and outstanding athlete, Spencer and teammate George Mrkonic were recognized as two of college football's premier linemen during the early 1950s. Spencer excelled at right offensive tackle, helping the Jayhawks to a combined 15-5 mark during his two seasons as a regular on the offensive front. As a sophomore, Spencer was a backup at KU behind future pro football hall of famer Mike McCormack. Following his senior season, Spencer was selected to play in both the East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl. He played in the National Football League for the Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers from 1953-61, and served as an offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders for 19 seasons (1962-79).

JOHN HADL • QB/HB/P/DB

1960-61 ALL-AMERICAN

John Hadl easily represents one of the greatest all-around performers in Kansas history. The Jayhawks' first two-time All-America selection, Hadl excelled in the Jayhawk offense as a quarterback and part-time halfback. He was also a highly effective defensive back, return specialist and one of the nation's top punters during his three-year career. His jersey No. 21 is one of just three retired in Kansas football history. A three-time all-conference selection, Hadl ended his career with 1,281 yards passing and 1,016 yards rushing. He still holds the school record for longest interception return (98 yards vs. TCU in 1959) and longest punt (94 yards vs. Oklahoma in 1959, third longest in NCAA history). Hadl, who led the nation in punting in 1959 with a 45.6 average, was a standout on some of KU's great teams. The Jayhawks were a combined 14-5-2 his junior and senior seasons with Hadl at the controls and ranked nationally in the top 20 each season. He concluded his senior season by leading KU to a 33-7 win over Rice in the Bluebonnet Bowl. Hadl was named most valuable player in the East-West Shrine game and the College All-Star Game. Hadl enjoyed a 16-year career in the NFL, passing for 33,513 yards. He was recognized as the NFL Man of the Year in 1971 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1994. Following a successful career in coaching, Hadl moved into administration and currently serves as associate athletics director at his alma mater.

All-Americans

GALE SAYERS • RB

1963-64 ALL-AMERICAN

Gale Sayers, the "Kansas Comet," established himself throughout his collegiate and professional career as one of the great running backs in the history of football. A two-time All-America selection for the Jayhawks, Sayers concluded his KU career with 2,675 yards rushing and 3,917 all-purpose yards. Sayers led KU in rushing, touchdowns and kickoff returns all three years he was in the lineup. He also led the team in receiving and punt returns as a junior and senior. Sayers became the first player in NCAA Division IA history to record a 99-yard run when he broke loose against Nebraska in Lincoln during the 1963 season. He also had a 96-yard kickoff return in a 15-14 upset of Oklahoma his senior season. Sayers was a first round draft pick of the Chicago Bears (and Kansas City Chiefs) and had an abbreviated seven-year NFL career that was cut short by a knee injury. He led the league in rushing in 1966 and 1969. He retired in 1972 with a career total of 4,956 rushing yards. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977 at age 34, the youngest person ever selected. He served as an assistant athletics director at his alma mater from 1972-76.

DAVID JAYNES • QB

1973 ALL-AMERICAN

David Jaynes brought a lethal arm to the Kansas offense in the early 1970s and broke virtually every season and career passing mark in the Jayhawk record book. A highly recruited high school quarterback at nearby Bonner Springs, Jaynes concluded his career ranked No. 1 all-time in passing yardage (a mark later broken by Frank Seurer) with 5,132 yards. His 35 career passing touchdowns still stands as a school record. Jaynes, who earned All-America honors in 1973, had his greatest game as a senior in 1973 with a school-record performance against Tennessee in Knoxville. Jaynes connected on 35 of 58 attempts for 394 yards. "I've never seen him have a better day in his life," said head coach Don Fambrough. Jaynes directed the Jayhawks to a 7-4-1 record his senior year, including a trip to the Liberty Bowl. Jaynes, who led KU in passing for three consecutive seasons, finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1973.

BOBBY DOUGLASS • QB

1968 ALL-AMERICAN

Twice (1967-68) selected All-Big Eight Conference, Douglass was named to both United Press International (UPI) and Kodak All-America teams in 1968. Douglass, in his senior season, directed the Pepper Rodgers-coached Jayhawks to a 9-2 record, a share of the Big Eight Conference title and a spot in the 1969 Orange Bowl. Douglass passed for 1,316 yards and 12 touchdowns his final year as a Jayhawk. He passed for TDs in six consecutive games in 1968 which represents a school record. He ranks eighth all-time in career passing yardage with 2,817 yards. His 3,832 yards in total offense qualifies as the ninth-best mark in KU history and he was responsible for 39 touchdowns during his career, a mark that ranks fifth on KU's all-time listing. Douglass was selected to play in the Senior Bowl, American Bowl and the College All-Star game in Chicago following his senior season. He earned Most Valuable Player honors in the American Bowl. Douglass played professionally in the NFL for 13 years with Chicago, San Diego, New Orleans and Green Bay.

BRUCE KALLMEYER • PK

1983 ALL-AMERICAN

Bruce Kallmeyer is regarded as one of the most potent offensive weapons in Kansas history thanks to his talents as a placekicker. Kallmeyer concluded his four-year Jayhawk career with single-season marks of field goals made (24), attempted (29) and ranks first all-time in career field goal percentage (77.9). Kallmeyer also established new standards in the Kansas record book for most field goals in a game (5) which he recorded twice in his career, against Nebraska in 1981 and Wichita State in 1983. Kallmeyer also had four field goals in the Jayhawks' upset win over Southern California in 1983. Kallmeyer, who had a career-long 57-yard field goal against Iowa State as a senior, ranks third all-time in scoring with 233 points. His 98 points in 1983 qualifies as the second-best single-season mark in KU history and his 21 points against Wichita State in the same season represents the most single-game points by a KU kicker in history.

Note: First-team All-Americans only

JOHN ZOOK • DE

1968 ALL-AMERICAN

A three-year letterman and two-time All-Big Eight Conference selection, John Zook anchored one of the top defensive units in Kansas football history. Zook earned All-America honors in 1968 as the defensive standout on a Kansas team that finished with a 9-2 record, shared the conference championship and faced Penn State in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks were ranked sixth nationally in the final Associated Press poll -- Zook's senior season. He finished his career with 202 total tackles, which ranks as the fourth-best mark among defensive linemen in school history. "He never played but full speed from snap one to snap 100. He was the most full-speed player on every snap that you could imagine," said Pepper Rodgers.

RING OF HONOR

The names of those players honored in football at the University of Kansas are displayed at the top of the north bowl in Memorial Stadium as a tribute to their careers. In addition, the three players who have had their jersey number retired - Ray Evans (42), John Hadl (21) and Gale Sayers (48) - are also listed with their respective numbers.

13 Jayhawks currently in the Ring of Honor

Nolan Cromwell	Bruce Kallmeyer	Otto Schnellbacher
Bobby Douglass	Curtis McClinton	Oliver Spencer
Ray Evans	George Mrkonic	John Zook
John Hadl	Gil Reich
David Jaynes	Gale Sayers

COACHES

FIELDING H. YOST (1899)

Fielding H. Yost became most well-known for his "Point-a-Minute" teams at the University of Michigan in the early part of the 1900s but he began to develop his reputation at the University of Kansas. After spending two one-season terms at Ohio Wesleyan (1897) and Nebraska (1898), Yost coached the Jayhawks for only one season and left an impression not only on his players but also the opponents. In 1899, Yost's Jayhawks posted a perfect 10-0 record, which in more than 100 years of Kansas football stands as one of only two perfect seasons. During that season Kansas outscored opponents 280-37, averaging 28 points per game. After Kansas, Yost went on to coach at Stanford (1900) and Michigan (1901-23, 1925-26). At Michigan, his Wolverines played 56 consecutive games without a loss, including 29 consecutive victories. In 1902, his Michigan team beat Stanford, 49-0, in the Rose Bowl. A 1951 inductee into the College Football Foundation Hall of Fame, he was elected to the Michigan Hall of Honor in 1979.

DR. JOHN H. OUTLAND (1901)

Dr. John H. Outland left his mark both on the University of Kansas and college football. Outland attended Kansas for just two years (1893-94) before transferring to the University of Pennsylvania to continue his medical studies. At Penn, Outland was named to Walter Camp's All-America Eleven one year as a defensive lineman, the other year as a fullback. Outland is one of only two players in history to be All-America at two positions (the other was Bronko Nagurski of Minnesota). In 1901, Outland served as head coach of the Kansas football team when the Jayhawks posted a 3-5-2 record. After going on to a successful career as a surgeon in the Kansas City area when his football days were over, Outland wanted to do something about the interior lineman's lack of recognition. In 1946, the Football Writer's Association of America presented the first Outland Trophy to Notre Dame's George Connor. While Outland was a student at Pennsylvania, the Penn Relays were founded and it was then he conceived the idea of a similar event in Kansas. In 1920, he approached Kansas athletics director Dr. F.C. "Phog" Allen with his idea and in 1923 the first running of the Kansas Relays was held.

GEORGE SAUER (1946-47)

KU's 24th football coach posted a 15-3-3 record in his two seasons as the Jayhawks' mentor. The former All-America fullback at Nebraska led Kansas to two-straight Big Six Championships and to the 1948 Orange Bowl. In 1954, he was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame. During World War II he served 18 months on board the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Enterprise and attained the rank of lieutenant colonel. His coaching career included stops at New Hampshire (1937-42), Navy (1948-49) and Baylor (1950-56). Sauer also served as Athletics Director at Baylor from 1950-60 before moving on to the professional ranks. In 1961 he became General Manager of the fledgling New York Titans (later the New York Jets). As director of player personnel from 1962-69 he built the franchise into a Super Bowl winner. In 1976 he was elected to the Kansas Hall of Fame.

JULES VERNE (J.V.) SIKES (1948-53)

Some have called J.V. Sikes' teams the most exciting in Kansas history. Running a pass-oriented offense, Sikes recorded a 35-25 mark in his six years as the Jayhawks' boss. In 1948, his first season as KU's head coach, he led the Jayhawks to a 7-3 record, including a victory over Nebraska. After the 1953 season, Sikes became the head coach at East Texas State. Sikes remained head coach of ETSU until his death at the age of 59 in 1964. At ETSU he posted a 63-33-4 record in 10 seasons. In 1957 and 1958, he led ETSU to the Tangerine Bowl. In 1965, ETSU named its highest football award the J.V. Sikes Award. In 1978, he was elected as a charter member of the ETSU Hall of Fame. A graduate of Texas A&M, Sikes was a three-sport star for the Aggies and was inducted into the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1967. After college, Sikes played professional baseball and advanced as far as the Texas League.

JACK MITCHELL (1958-66)

A native of Arkansas City, Kan., Jack Mitchell is tied with Glen Mason as holding the longest term of any head football coach in Kansas history. In his nine-year (1958-66) stint as head coach he recorded 44 wins, 42 losses and five ties. Under Mitchell's guidance, the Jayhawks won their first conference title since 1930 in 1960 (the title was later revoked when league officials ordered Kansas to forfeit wins over Colorado and Missouri). His 1961 team won Kansas' first bowl game by routing Rice, 35-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl. During his coaching career he coached five All-Americans and had 16 of his former players go on to play professionally. An All-American quarterback at Oklahoma, Mitchell's trademark was his courage and ability to make quick personnel changes and tactical innovations. Before coming to Kansas, Mitchell spent two years (1953-54) as the head coach at the University of Wichita (now Wichita State University) and three years (1955-57) at the University of Arkansas. His teams won or tied for a conference championship in every league he coached.

DON FAMBROUGH (1971-74, 79-82)

Of the 10 bowl games the University of Kansas has participated in, Don Fambrough has played or coached in five of them. As a player at Kansas, Fambrough earned All-Big Six honors in 1946 and 1947. At the conclusion of the 1947 season he helped lead the team to the Orange Bowl. When the Lawrence Journal World polled Jayhawk fans to select an all-time team to help commemorate college football's centennial year Fambrough was a first-team choice at guard. After graduating he continued his association with Kansas football by serving as a graduate assistant on the Jayhawk coaching staff under J.V. Sikes. When he became head coach of the Jayhawks in 1971 he had served 19 years as an assistant coach under Sikes, Jack Mitchell and Pepper Rodgers. In just his third season as head coach he led the team to the 1973 Liberty Bowl. After the 1974 season he became Assistant Director of the Williams Fund where he remained until accepting the reigns of the football program again in 1979. In 1981 he coached the Jayhawks to the Hall of Fame Bowl, the same year he was voted the Associated Press Big Eight Coach of the Year.

PLAYERS

CURTIS McCLINTON (1959-61)

FULLBACK

Curtis McClinton brought versatility to the University of Kansas from his native Wichita, Kan. As a Jayhawk, McClinton was named to The Sporting News All-America team and to the Pro Scouts' All-America team in 1961. He was also a three-time All-Big Eight selection. All three years at Kansas he was the Big Eight champion in the hurdles for the track team. Although he played primarily as a blocking back, he still ranks 21st on KU's all-time career rushing list with 1,377 yards. In 1959 he was the leading rusher on the team. Before going on to a professional career he played in the East-West Shrine game, the Hula Bowl and the All-Star game. A 14th-round draft pick of the Dallas Texans (later the Kansas City Chiefs), McClinton went on to earn Rookie of the Year honors. In 1963 he was selected as the Most Valuable Player of the American Football League All-Star game. In 1969, he was a member of the Super Bowl champion Kansas City Chiefs. He was selected to the all-time KU team by Jayhawk fans to commemorate the centennial of college football in 1999. During the 2004 season, McClinton was added to the Memorial Stadium Ring of Honor.

JOHN RIGGINS (1968-70)

FULLBACK

The second of three members of the Riggins family to play in the backfield for the Jayhawks in the late 60s and early 70s, John Riggins was one of the hardest runners in football history. Known as "The Diesel," he led the Jayhawks in rushing from 1968-70 and currently ranks fifth on KU's all-time career rushing charts with 2,659 yards. Riggins ranks in a tie for second on KU's all-time charts for rushing touchdowns in a season with 14 in 1970, fourth on the season rushing yardage list with 1,131 yards in 1970 and 15th on KU's charts for total offense in a career with 2,659 yards. Although he was recognized with All-Big Eight honors twice at Kansas, Riggins went on to accomplish much more in the pros. A first-round selection (sixth pick overall) of the New York Jets in 1971, he joined the Washington Redskins in 1976 and helped lead them to the Super Bowl three times. In Super Bowl XVII he broke away for a 43-yard run that won the game for the Redskins and earned him Most Valuable Player honors. An inductee of the Ring of Honor at Washington's RFK Stadium, Riggins was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1992, his first year of eligibility. He was inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

NOLAN CROMWELL (1973-76)

SAFETY/QUARTERBACK

Nolan Cromwell, the Wichita Eagle's high school football player of the decade for the 1970s, was inducted into KU's Ring of Honor during the 2005 season. In his four years in Lawrence he proved his versatility. As a freshman in 1973 he was the starting safety in the Liberty Bowl. After being a two-year starter at safety he made the move to quarterback where he broke several KU, Big Eight and NCAA records for rushing by a quarterback. Despite playing in just 18 games on offense at Kansas, he is 13th on the all-time rushing charts and is the top rushing quarterback. The 1975 Big Eight Offensive Player of the Year ran for 1,124 yards that year, the third highest in NCAA history at the time. An honorable-mention All-American on the gridiron, Cromwell earned All-America honors on the track while setting KU records in the 600 and 400 yard runs, the intermediate hurdles and the decathlon. After leaving Kansas he was a second-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Rams where he played safety until 1988. Continuing his prowess on the football field he was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Year in 1980 and was selected to participate in the Pro Bowl. He is a member of the Seattle Seahawks coaching staff.

WILLIE PLESS (1982-85)

LINEBACKER

Pless was one of the hardest workers on the Jayhawk squad when he roamed the turf at Memorial Stadium in the 1980s. Following his junior and senior campaigns he earned the "110-Percent Award" as selected by his teammates. The three-time All-Big Eight selection is KU's all-time leading tackler for a single season (206) and career (633). He ended his career at Kansas as the Big Eight's all-time leading tackler. In 1985 he was honored with the establishment of an annual award in his name that is presented to the KU leader in tackles and assists each season. A 1985 preseason Playboy All-American, Pless was a second-team Associated Press All-American in 1984. Invited to play in the 1985 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic, he earned defensive MVP honors at that game. He worked hard in the classroom earning GTE Region VII Academic All-America honors in 1985. A member of the Big Eight's all-decade team, he was also a member of the Big Eight All-American team in 1985. After his college career, he went on to have a successful career in the Canadian Football League. In 1994 Pless became the CFL's career tackles leader. Pless was inducted into the KU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000 and the CFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

TONY SANDS (1988-91)

RUNNING BACK

Although small in stature, the 5-6 running back created a large presence on the gridiron. The 1991 Big Eight Conference Offensive Player of the Year set or tied 17 Kansas rushing or scoring records during his career including most yards in a game (396), season (1,479) and career (3,788). In his final home game "Tuxedo Tony" rushed for an NCAA single-game record (since broken) 396 yards, and his 58 rushing attempts also established an NCAA record. At the conclusion of his career he ranked at the top of KU's and eighth on the Big Eight's all-time career rushing charts with 3,788 yards. During his four-year career at Kansas he had 17 games in which he rushed for 100 or more yards. A first-team All-Big Eight selection, he earned third-team Associated Press All-America honors his senior year. At the conclusion of his college career he was selected to play in the Hula Bowl and the East-West College All-Star game.

DANA STUBBLEFIELD (1990-92)

DEFENSIVE END

An integral member of one of the best defensive lines in Kansas history, Stubblefield earned first-team All-America honors from College & Pro Football Weekly and second-team honors from the Associated Press and Football News following his senior year. The Cleves, Ohio, native teamed up with Gilbert Brown, Chris Maumalanga and Kyle Moore to wreak havoc on opposing quarterbacks. During his three-year career he recorded 19 quarterback sacks including 10 in 1991. As a team captain in 1992, he helped lead the Jayhawks to the Aloha Bowl where he was named Most Valuable Player. He finished his career at Kansas ranking among the Jayhawks' all-time leaders in total tackles (tied for sixth with 168), sacks (fourth with 17) and tackles for loss (tied for fifth with 30). Stubblefield was named first-team All-Big Eight following his junior and senior campaigns. A first-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers, Stubblefield earned Defensive Newcomer of the Year honors his rookie season. He finished his career ranked among the Jayhawks' all-time leaders in total tackles for interior linemen (168) and is currently fourth in sacks. An All-Pro performer in the NFL, Stubblefield most recently played for the Oakland Raiders.

1948 ORANGE BOWL

JAN. 1, 1948 -- MIAMI, FLA.
GEORGIA TECH 20, KANSAS 14

Trailing 20-14 to Georgia Tech with the final minutes ticking away, Kansas appeared ready to upset the favored Engineers in the 14th annual Orange Bowl only to have a lost fumble at the two-foot line dash all hopes.

All three Georgia Tech touchdowns came via the pass. Included were 24 and five-yard strikes from quarterback Jim Still to Jim Patton and a 15-yard score from Still to Billy Queen.

Georgia Tech scored first on the 24-yard pass play to take a 7-0 lead in the second quarter. Kansas answered however, with a 65-yard drive climaxed by Ray Evans' 12-yard scoring burst and the extra point by Don Fambrough.

The third quarter proved pivotal, however, as Georgia Tech scored twice to take a 20-7 lead into the final stanza. Finding it difficult to move on the ground, Tech resorted to the airways. As a result, Still set an Orange Bowl record for most touchdown passes and best passing percentage, a .769 mark based on 10 completions in 13 attempts.

The Jayhawks were not finished, however. A long pass from quarterback Bill Hogan to end Bryan Sperry moved the ball to the Georgia Tech 12. Hogan then lobbed a 12-yard scoring pass to Evans. Soon afterwards Dick Monroe of Kansas recovered a Georgia Tech fumble at the Tech 42. Three plays later, Hogan passed complete to end Otto Schnellbacher putting the ball at the 26. Evans then sliced off three yards before pitching to Schnellbacher who was forced out at the 10. Evans then bolted nine yards to the one and it appeared Kansas was ready to upset the Engineers.

But then disaster struck. Quarterback Lynne McNutt, attempting to sneak it in for the game-tying touchdown, lost the ball and the officials ruled that Tech's Rollo Phillips came up with it. Controversy raged as to whether McNutt actually fumbled or Phillips took it away from him amidst the pileup at the goal line.

The game marked the end of the playing careers of two KU All-Americans — end Otto Schnellbacher and halfback Ray Evans. The pair represented the first All-Americans ever named at Kansas. Schnellbacher finished his career at KU with 58 pass receptions good for 1,069 yards. Both the number of receptions and total yards stood as KU school records for more than 20 years.

Evans finished his career with 3,799 yards of total offense including 1,431 rushing and 2,368 passing. The total yards and passing yardage also stood as school records for more than 20 years.

1961 BLUEBONNET BOWL

DEC. 16, 1961 -- HOUSTON, TEXAS
KANSAS 33, RICE 7

Sparked by a 41-yard run by quarterback John Hadl out of deep punt formation late in the first half, Kansas swept by Rice amidst a steady rain, 33-7, to claim the third annual Bluebonnet Bowl.

Trailing 7-6 at the time and facing a fourth-and-six situation from the KU 40, Hadl faked the punt and raced 41 yards before being dropped at the Rice 19. Two plays later fullback Ken Coleman crashed over from the one to give the Jayhawks a 12-7 halftime lead. That proved to be the impetus for Kansas as it thoroughly dominated the second half against the homestanding Owls.

The Jayhawks controlled the ball in the second half scoring on drives of 50, 36 and 68 yards while finishing the day with 76 offensive plays compared to only 47 for Rice.

Kansas was equally effective on the ground and in the air. Hadl finished with seven completions in 10 attempts for 64 yards. Coleman, voted the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Performer, finished with 107 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

The Jayhawks scored first with 5:05 remaining in the initial quarter when Coleman went over from a yard out. It climaxed a 59-yard, nine-play drive. The extra point attempt by Bill Barnes was blocked.

Rice answered that score, however, with just 45 seconds left in the first quarter when quarterback Randy Kerbow completed a five-yard scoring pass to flanker Johnny Burrell. The extra point was good to put the Owls on top for the one and only time. That set the stage for Hadl's heroics and the Kansas domination.

Two Kansas players — Hadl and fullback Curtis McClinton — signed professional contracts on the field immediately after the game. Hadl signed with the San Diego Chargers and McClinton with the Dallas Texans.

Controversy surrounded Hadl prior to the game when it was alleged that he had already signed a professional contract with the Chargers thus making him ineligible. To clear the air he signed an affidavit saying he had not signed.

Hadl finished his career with 2,382 yards total offense — 1,341 passing and 1,041 rushing. At the time that figure ranked second only to All-American Ray Evans who 14 years earlier had led Kansas to its first bowl appearance.

McClinton concluded his career with 1,414 yards rushing. At the time that figure was the fourth best in Kansas history behind Charlie Hoag, Homer Floyd and Evans.

1969 ORANGE BOWL

JAN. 1, 1969 -- MIAMI, FLA.

PENN STATE 15, KANSAS 14

In the never-to-be-forgotten "Twelfth Man Game," Penn State shaded Kansas, 15-14, with a second-chance two-point conversion in the waning seconds of the 35th annual Orange Bowl Classic.

The Jayhawks apparently had won the game when they broke up Chuck Burkhart's conversion pass following Penn State's frantic touchdown with just 15 seconds remaining.

However, it was ruled Kansas had 12 men on the field and the Nittany Lions received another chance — this time from only one and one-half yards instead of three. On that attempt Bob Campbell's thrust at the left side of his line produced the winning margin.

Kansas, playing in its third bowl game, took a 14-7 lead early in the fourth quarter when Donnie Shanklin returned a punt 46 yards to the seven to set up a touchdown by John Riggins.

The Jayhawks nursed the lead for nearly 12 minutes and once missed a first down by inches at the Penn State five while driving for what would have been a wrap-up touchdown.

The game still appeared to be under control when Kansas kicked to the Nittany Lions at the 50 with 1:16 remaining. But on the next play Burkhart hit Campbell with a 47-yard pass that KU defender Billy Hunt lost in the lights. It took three plays to score from the three, but Burkhart finally got across on a bootleg play around left end to set the stage for the hectic windup.

Kansas scored in the opening quarter when Mike Reeves capped a nine-play, 45-yard drive by ramming over from the two. Pat Hutchens set the drive in motion by intercepting Burkhart's pass.

Shanklin, who gained 122 yards while handling the ball 19 times on rushes, kick returns and pass receptions, was voted the outstanding performer. His Orange Bowl production pushed Shanklin's career all-purpose running aggregate to 3,506 yards.

The game was played before 77,719 fans, in addition to, a national television audience. The 77,719 represented the second largest crowd ever to watch a Kansas football game.

The game also marked the conclusion of careers for two Kansas All-Americans — quarterback Bobby Douglass and defensive end John Zook. The 1968 season was the last to see Kansas have two All-Americans in one season.

1973 LIBERTY BOWL

DEC. 17, 1973 -- MEMPHIS, TENN.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE 31, KANSAS 18

Playing in a bowl game for the fourth time in its history, Kansas was upset by North Carolina State, 31-18, in the 15th annual Liberty Bowl.

The Jayhawks went into the game a slight favorite but fell after a controversial decision by an official in the third quarter which led to three unanswered N.C. State touchdowns.

The play came in the early minutes of the third quarter with the score tied, 10-10. Facing a fourth down and six situation from its own 44-yard line, N.C. State punted to KU's Bruce Adams at the 19. In heavy traffic Adams called for a fair catch but fell to the ground as the ball glanced off of him. N.C. State's Ralph Stringer fell on the ball and the Wolfpack scored two plays later when fullback Stan Fritz went over right guard from eight yards out. Ron Sewell's extra point put N.C. State on top, 17-10.

Adams argued with officials that he was tripped on the fair catch but the officials refused to change their ruling.

The Wolfpack scored twice more before the Jayhawks' offense responded with a late fourth quarter scoring drive of its own. A drive of 80 yards in 17 plays culminated by a 12-yard touchdown run by Charles Young pushed N.C. State ahead, 24-10, with 4:50 remaining in the game. Less than a minute later N.C. State's Jim Henderson intercepted a David Jaynes pass in the flat and returned it 31 yards to put the Wolfpack out of reach, 31-10.

Jaynes, KU's All-America quarterback playing his last game for the Jayhawks, then led Kansas on a 74-yard drive in eight plays to cut the N.C. State margin to 13, 31-18. Fullback Robert Miller, playing the best game of his career for KU, scored the touchdown with a brilliant 12-yard burst through the middle with just 34 seconds remaining. Jaynes passed to Adams for a two-point conversion.

Jaynes finished the game with 24 completions in 38 attempts for 218 yards. All of those figures represented Liberty Bowl records and for his efforts he was named the game's outstanding offensive performer.

Miller finished the game with 104 yards rushing in 15 carries. He scored both KU touchdowns, one rushing and one receiving.

Mike Lemon, junior noseguard, led the Kansas defense with 11 tackles, seven of which were unassisted. Lemon was voted KU's outstanding defensive performer in the game.

1975 SUN BOWL

DEC. 26, 1975 -- EL PASO, TEXAS

PITTSBURGH 33, KANSAS 19

Playing in its fifth bowl game ever and second in three years, Kansas dropped a 33-19 decision to Pittsburgh in the 41st annual Sun Bowl.

Behind three 100-plus yard rushing performances by All-American halfback Tony Dorsett (142), fullback Elliott Walker (123) and quarterback Robert Haygood (101), the Panthers built a 19-0 halftime lead and then held on in the second half to claim the triumph.

Walker opened the game's scoring with a brilliant 60-yard run on a pitchout from Haygood. The score came with 2:11 remaining in the initial quarter and after two earlier scoring threats by Kansas had faltered.

The failure on those two occasions seemingly gave Pittsburgh the momentum it needed to easily capture the verdict.

The first came on the game's third play when KU quarterback Nolan Cromwell kept for 13 yards around end then pitched to halfback Bill Campfield who fled untouched to the end zone for what appeared to be an 83-yard scoring play. But the officials ruled it was an illegal forward pitch and the ball was brought back. The drive subsequently stalled.

The second came just inside the six-minute mark in the first quarter when, facing a fourth-and-one at the Pitt 17, Cromwell appeared to easily make a first down with a sneak up the middle. But when the ball was spotted it wasn't even close, turning it over to the Panthers. Four plays later Walker scored from 60 yards out and the floodgates appeared open.

The Jayhawks did score first in the second half giving some hope of a comeback. Halfback Laverne Smith, who finished the day with 118 yards rushing, dazzled the Panther defense with a 55-yard burst up the middle with 4:32 remaining in the third quarter. That made it 19-7 but with 12:49 remaining in the game Walker scored again for Pittsburgh, this time from two yards out, to erase all KU hopes of a comeback.

Smith later added a 17-yard touchdown run which was followed by a 38-yard scoring pass from quarterback Scott McMichael to halfback Skip Sharp to close out the Kansas scoring.

Nearly 4,000 KU faithful made the trip to El Paso to help comprise the record turnout of 30,272.

1981 HALL OF FAME BOWL

DEC. 31, 1981 -- BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 10, KANSAS 0

It will be remembered by the Jayhawk fans as the 12-second game. That's the only way to describe Kansas' 10-0 loss to Mississippi State in the fifth annual Hall of Fame Bowl. Playing in its first postseason game in six years, Kansas players, coaches and fans watched as a nightmare unfolded before their eyes.

Witnessed by a crowd of 41,000 on a cool, damp afternoon at Birmingham's Legion Field, KU's Darren Green took the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards before accidentally colliding with a teammate. The result was a turnover and Mississippi State's ball on the KU 17.

On the ensuing play, MSU quarterback John Bond rolled right on an option play, turned upfield and went unscathed into the end zone for the first and last TD of the day. The extra point was good handing Mississippi State a shocking 7-0 lead. A mere dozen ticks of the clock had gone by and KU was trailing. Head coach Don Fambrough and his beleaguered troops could not believe what they had just viewed.

"I wake up in a cold sweat thinking what might happen if you fumble the opening kickoff and they go in," said a saddened Fambrough after the game. "That kickoff was the turning point. Our team was stung and intimidated."

True, the Jayhawks could never regroup. However, the defense, as had commonplace all season, stiffened, allowing just a field goal for the remainder of the game. The offense was a different story. Senior quarterback Steve Smith, subbing for the injured Frank Seurer, played his heart out but the gears would never churn. The Jayhawks' only real scoring threat was nullified by a strange penalty.

With a little under five minutes left in the game, KU's Bucky Scribner had punted from deep in KU territory when the Bulldogs' Cookie Jackson fumbled and Kansas recovered on the MSU 22. However, a flag had been thrown. The Jayhawks had clipped and expected to have the ball moved back 15 yards to the Bulldog 37. That wasn't the case. The officials changed their minds and decided the clip had occurred during the punt. Therefore the penalty was assessed from the line of scrimmage. Kansas had to punt again from its own 11. Again, too much adversity to overcome.

On this day of bad breaks, KU did have some bright spots. Freshman signal caller Mike Frederick, seeing his most playing time since putting on the Crimson and Blue, completed 7-of-9 passes for 110 yards and a near score. Kansas had the ball on the Bulldogs' two-yard line and no time left because of a preceding defensive penalty. But a short pass intended for Wayne Capers fell short and KU suffered its first shutout in six postseason games.

1992 ALOHA BOWL

DEC. 25, 1992 -- HONOLULU, HAWAII

KANSAS 23, BRIGHAM YOUNG 20

Playing in its first bowl game in 11 years, Kansas lost the coin toss to begin the game and, subsequently, surrendered a kickoff return touchdown to Brigham Young's Hema Heimuli on the first play of the game.

This auspicious start was much like the Jayhawks' last bowl appearance, 11 years earlier, when a Kansas turnover on the kickoff enabled Mississippi State to score a touchdown 12 seconds into a 10-0 win in the 1981 Hall of Fame Bowl. The rest of the game, however, unfolded quite nicely for Jayhawk fans. Just two plays from scrimmage later, Kansas receiver Matt Gay caught a lateral from quarterback Chip Hilleary and then hit a wide-open Rodney Harris for a 74-yard touchdown pass. After just 1:01, each team had scored a touchdown.

The Jayhawks continued to score in the first quarter. With BYU pinned deep in its own territory, junior lineman Chris Maumalanga burst through the Cougars' line to sack running back Jamal Willis in his own endzone for a safety and a 9-7 lead. Maumalanga was one of the many highlights for the Kansas defensive line, which sacked BYU quarterback Tom Young six times. Senior Dana Stubblefield led the Jayhawks with three sacks, three hurries and one tackle for loss. For his efforts, Stubblefield was named the game's most valuable player.

But Willis later gained revenge with a 29-yard touchdown romp with 10:16 left to play in the half. Following his score, BYU led, 14-9, and seemed to have halted the Jayhawks' momentum.

On the ensuing kickoff, another Kansas senior — running back Maurice Douglas — broke free for a 54-yard return that put the Jayhawks on the BYU 43. Kicker Dan Eichloff hammered a 41-yard field goal that capped the first-half scoring at 14-12. Brigham Young owned the third quarter, racking up 187 yards total offense and holding the ball for 9:50. Kansas, on the other hand, managed just 33 yards total offense but did limit the Cougars to six points as BYU carried a 20-12 lead into the final quarter. To start the final quarter, Hilleary engineered a six-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in his one-yard run and was capped by his two-point conversion that tied the game at 20. That drive was sustained by Hilleary's 48-yard completion to Harris, who finished with 142 yards on four catches.

On the following drive, the Jayhawk defense stopped the Cougars on three straight plays and BYU was forced to punt.

Kansas regained the ball on its own 21 yard line with just over 10 minutes to play. Hilleary then embarked the Jayhawks on a drive that would last nearly seven minutes and result in Dan Eichloff's 48-yard field goal that provided Kansas with the program's first bowl win in 31 years and just the second in school history.

BYU then mounted a drive late in the game, advancing as far as the KU 34-yard line. But senior safety Charley Bowen secured the Jayhawks' first bowl win in 31 years by picking off Young's pass at the Kansas 29-yard line with 2:11 to play.

A Christmas crowd of 42,933 paid to see the Jayhawks' win, and the game ranked among the top-watched bowl games on television in 1992-93.

1995 ALOHA BOWL

DEC. 25, 1995 -- HONOLULU, HAWAII

KANSAS 51, UCLA 30

Preparing for its second bowl game in four seasons and its eighth in school history, Kansas received a surprising announcement from head coach Glen Mason one week before the game and another equally as surprising just hours before kickoff.

Mason, who had accepted the head coaching position at the University of Georgia the day before the team departed for Hawaii, told his squad that he had reconsidered the move and was staying at Kansas before the team left the hotel for Aloha Stadium. Inspired by Mason's decision, the Jayhawks set several bowl records in running over the favored UCLA Bruins to win their second-straight postseason game. Kansas struck first and often in taking a 17-0 lead into halftime. Senior quarterback Mark Williams capped an 11-play drive in which the Jayhawks drove 72 yards with a nine-yard pass to tight end Jim Moore for the touchdown. Williams set a school postseason record by completing his first 10 pass attempts, five of which came on the opening drive.

On their first drive of the second quarter it appeared the Jayhawk offense would stall when faced with a third-and-13 on UCLA's 49-yard line. While the UCLA defense was looking for a pass, junior running back June Henley took a draw play and outran the Bruin defenders for the touchdown. Henley carried the ball 13 times for 107 yards on the afternoon.

Jeff McCord booted a 27-yard field goal late in the second quarter to give the Jayhawks a 17-0 lead at halftime.

The Jayhawk defense stonewalled the Bruin offense yet again, this time forcing a punt from deep within their own territory. On the return it appeared as though KU's Ashaundai Smith had set a bowl record with a 76-yard return for a touchdown. However, Kansas was called for a block in the back on the return which limited the return to 43 yards. Five plays later Williams found Andre Carter open in the left corner of the end zone for the score. Carter's first career TD gave Kansas a 37-7 lead late in the third quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter, UCLA quarterback Cade McNown found Kevin Jordan open in the end zone on a fourth-and-goal from the eight-yard line as the Bruins began to mount a comeback. On the ensuing kickoff, Vitto Clemente recovered a pooch kick on KU's 30. Five plays later, Abdul-Jabbar ran the ball into the end zone from five yards out, cutting the Jayhawk lead to 37-22.

Williams finished the day 18-for-27 passing for 288 yards including three touchdown strikes. He also had 11 carries for 48 yards including his fourth quarter touchdown run. Following the game he was named Kansas' Most Valuable Player of the game.

When the final gun sounded the Jayhawks had set a bowl record for most points scored by a team with their 51-30 victory over UCLA.

2003 MAZDA TANGERINE BOWL DEC. 22, 2003 -- ORLANDO, FLA. NORTH CAROLINA STATE 56, KANSAS 26

Kansas, playing in its first bowl game since 1995, fell to the North Carolina State Wolfpack, 56-26, in the Mazda Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla. The loss ended the Jayhawks' season with a record of 6-7, while the Wolfpack finished with an 8-5 mark on the year. NC State opened the scoring with a three-play, 64-yard drive which took just 1:02, capped off by a 45-yard touchdown pass from Tangerine Bowl MVP Philip Rivers to Richard Washington.

The Jayhawks answered with 10:41 left in the first quarter, as senior quarterback Bill Whittemore found freshman wide receiver Charles Gordon in the endzone on a 23-yard pass play. That touchdown tied Gordon with former Jayhawk Willie Vaughn for the most single-season touchdown receptions by a KU freshman (5).

KU responded with 4:01 remaining in the half, capping off a 10-play, 66-yard drive with a 28-yard field goal by Jerod Brooks to make the score 21-10, but NCSU closed out the first-half scoring with a three-yard touchdown pass from Rivers to McLendon to make the score 28-10 at the break.

The 'Hawks opened the scoring in the second half, as they marched down the field on a nine-play, 79-yard drive, culminating in an 11-yard touchdown pass from Whittemore to sophomore running back Clark Green. NC State answered back with two straight scores, however, on a 40-yard pass from Rivers to Brian Clark and 10-yard run by Davis, to take a 42-17 lead.

Kansas got back on the board with 3:42 left in the third quarter, as Johnny Beck nailed a 39-yard field goal to narrow the gap to 42-20, then a nine-yard Whittemore rush for a score made the score 42-26 with 14:18 left in the game, as the Jayhawks failed on the two-point conversion attempt.

KU's Whittemore finished the game connecting on 20-of-41 pass attempts for 243 yards and two touchdowns. He finished his career with 310 pass completions (sixth place all-time) on 568 attempts (seventh place) for 4,051 yards (sixth place). Whittemore also ended up in fourth place with 5,134 yards of total offense in his career, and set the KU career record for touchdowns responsible for with 50.

Clark Green led the Jayhawks' rushing attack with 14 carries for 87 yards, while Brandon Rideau led the Jayhawk receivers with a KU-bowl record nine catches for 109 yards on the night.

Rivers ended the game with a record setting performance, completing 37-of-45 pass attempts for 475 yards and five touchdowns.

Kansas saw its two-game bowl winning streak snapped.

2005 FORT WORTH BOWL DEC. 23, 2005 -- FORT WORTH, TEXAS KANSAS 41, HOUSTON 13

The University of Kansas closed out the 2005 season with a 42-13 victory over Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium. The win gave the Jayhawks their first bowl victory since winning the 1995 Aloha Bowl and the most wins (seven) in a decade.

Junior Brian Murph put Kansas (7-5) on the board early when he returned a Houston punt 85 yards for a touchdown. The punt return for a touchdown was the first of Murph's career and KU's longest of the season. Sophomore Scott Webb kicked the extra point to give the Jayhawks a 7-0 lead 10:26 into the game.

Houston (6-6) scored its first points of the game in the second quarter (14:22) when freshman Ben Bell kicked a 32-yard field goal. Kansas answered on the ensuing possession with a five-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a 13-yard shovel pass from senior Jason Swanson to junior Jon Cornish for a touchdown. Webb converted on the extra point to give KU a 14-3 lead.

The Cougars capped a 42-yard, seven-play drive with a touchdown when junior Kevin Kolb scored on a one-yard keeper with 57 seconds remaining in the half. Bell's extra point brought UH within four, and KU headed into the break leading 14-10.

The KU defense struck early in the second half when senior Theo Baines intercepted a Kolb pass and ran it 16 yards to KU's 30-yard line. Two plays later, Cornish took another shovel pass from Swanson 30 yards for his second touchdown of the day and 11th of the season. Webb's kick gave the Jayhawks a 21-10 advantage. After a 44-yard field goal by Houston's T.J. Lawrence, Swanson connected with senior Mark Simmons on a 32-yard pass to top off an 80-yard, 3:32 scoring drive. The TD and extra point (Webb) gave KU a 28-13 lead with 4:57 left in the third stanza.

KU pulled away when senior Charlton Keith picked off a Kolb pass at the Jayhawks' 14-yard line 2:37 into the fourth quarter and ran it in for a touchdown. The interception was Keith's first and marked his second career touchdown. Just over a minute later, Baines nabbed his second interception of the day, giving KU the ball on the UH 46-yard line. Murph scored his second touchdown of the day in the fourth quarter, a 48-yard pass from Swanson, to give the Jayhawks a 42-13 advantage.

Swanson threw for four touchdowns and had 19 completions on 29 attempts for 307 yards in the final game of his career. Swanson joined Kolb as the 2005 Fort Worth Bowl MVPs.

This listing of all-time lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Included are names -- in some instances first name and not actual name on roster -- along with position and years lettered of the more than 2,000 letterwinners who have played at the University of Kansas. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to the KU Media Relations Office. Lettermen in boldface type are active players.

Hall of Athletics

The recently completed Booth Family Hall of Athletics serves to recognize all past KU alumni varsity athletes.

The Booth Family Hall of Athletics is a 26,000-square-foot museum adjacent to the east side of Allen Fieldhouse. The facility opened in January 2006 and is open year-round, allowing Jayhawk fans everywhere to experience the history and tradition of Kansas Athletics. The Hall honors KU's historic athletics programs, its coaches and student-athletes, past and present.

The Hall was made possible through more than $5 million in gifts and pledges from the children and grandchildren of the late Gilbert and Betty Booth, longtime Jayhawk fans and Lawrence residents. Booth family members who pledged their support to the Hall are David and Suzanne Booth of Los Angeles, and their children, Erin and Chandler; Mark and Lauren Bacich Booth of London, and their children, Miles, Coco and Cyrus; Mark and Jane Booth Berkley of Tescott, Kan., and their children and spouses, Stuart and Tina Berkley, Elizabeth Berkley and Melissa and Marco Ungaschik.

The Booth Family Hall of Athletics is divided into several different exhibit areas including...

Game and The Gear: Highlights the 18 current athletic teams at KU and focuses on the recent athletes and achievements.

The Story of Sport: Takes you on a walk through the history of Kansas Athletics, beginning in 1879 with the introduction of baseball, up to the most recent events. This section also features two Olympic cases and a case dedicated to Wilt Chamberlain.

KANSAS Experience Wall: Highlights traditions of Kansas athletics, including Crimson and Blue, the Marching Band, Cheerleading, Fan Traditions, Rivalries and Media.

Hall of Champions: Contains many of the conference and national championship trophies, as well as the Hall of Fame wall.

The Booth Family Hall of Athletics is a must-see for any Jayhawk fan or Kansas resident. There's also a beautiful gift shop located in the Hall.

KU Chancellor

Dr. Robert Hemenway

Dr. Robert Hemenway's life has been marked by accomplishment as an administrator, teacher and scholar.

As the 16th chancellor of the University of Kansas, he is the chief executive for the university, which spans the main campus in Lawrence, the Edwards Campus in Overland Park, the Medical Center campus in Kansas City, Kan., and its clinical branch in Wichita.

Leaders of other universities recognize Hemenway's administrative talents. In 2002, Hemenway was elected to chair the 18-member NCAA Division I board of directors, a position he held through January 2005. This appointment followed two terms as chairman of the board for the Big 12 Conference. From 2005-2006, he served on the NCAA Division I President's Task Force.

Since coming to KU in 1995, Hemenway has streamlined KU administration, made the university more student-centered, and overseen KU's growing national reputation. Under Hemenway's leadership, KU has set a goal to be recognized as a Top 25 public university. A growing list of nationally ranked academic programs and achievements of faculty and students support this goal. U.S. News & World Report ranks KU's academic reputation as 31st among public universities and 24 of KU's graduate programs 25th or higher among similar programs at public universities. KU's graduate programs in city management and urban policy and special education are ranked first in the nation.

KU has experienced record enrollments in each of the last three years with 29,624 students enrolled in Fall 2005. The student body continues to be highly qualified with an average ACT score well above the national mean. In addition, Kansas ranked 12th in the nation among public universities in 2005-06 for the number of freshman National Merit Scholars. KU students win several of the nation's most prestigious awards every year, including the Rhodes, Goldwater, Marshall, and Udall Scholarships. A selection of 10 Academic All-Americans during 2005-06 athletic season brought the number of KU student-athletes chosen for this honor since 1990 to 53.

Research funding at KU, a major source for Kansas economic development, has climbed steadily, reaching a record $281 million in fiscal year 2005. In May 2005, the KU Edwards Campus in Overland Park became the home of the fourth Confucius Institute in the United States, which will offer community-based Chinese language instruction to businesses, schools, government and non-profit organizations throughout the region. The university's number one priority is to achieve National Cancer Institute (NCI) designation for the KU Cancer Center, located at the KU Medical Center in Kansas City. This designation will enable superior cancer research and care for citizens in the state and region.

In Kansas, Hemenway has performed a complex balancing act, positioning KU as a major player in the movement to make the Greater Kansas City area a national center for life sciences and information technology, while at the same time forging stronger connections with the rural counties of western Kansas.

"To me, both Kansas and Kansas City are filled with opportunity," Hemenway says. "KU wants to be a better partner to the entire state."

Hemenway remains a committed scholar and teacher. He is known for his biography of African-American novelist Zora Neale Hurston, a "Best Books" pick by the New York Times in 1978 and a Quality Paperback Book Club selection in 1991. Hemenway is teaching a 7:30 a.m. undergraduate English course this fall.

The chancellor and his wife, Leah, live in the Outlook, the KU chancellor's official residence. Four of the chancellor's eight children are graduates of KU. The Hemenways have six grandchildren.

"KU football is one of the university's real success stories. Two bowl games in the past three years signals that Coach Mangino has set a new standard for achievement. The Jayhawks are back and ready to soar even higher."

Fourth Year at Kansas

Lew Perkins has served as Director of Athletics at the University of Kansas since June 2003. He arrived at KU after achieving nationally recognized success as Athletics Director at the University of Connecticut.

Kansas Athletics has experienced tremendous growth and success during Perkins' short tenure.

•In the spring of 2006, the student-athletes in KU's 18-sport program achieved unprecedented success in the classroom. Seven KU teams posted 3.0 grade-point averages or better and 205 student-athletes on active rosters (51 percent) posted a 3.0 GPA or higher, including 40 with perfect 4.0 GPA's.

•The football team won the 2005 Fort Worth Bowl and has participated in a bowl game in two of the last three years.

•The men's basketball team reached the Elite Eight of the 2004 NCAA Championship and has won the last two Big 12 Conference regular-season championships, as well as the 2006 Big 12 tournament title.

•The women's volleyball team has appeared in three consecutive NCAA tournaments, reaching the second round in 2003 and 2004.

•The women's soccer team has appeared in two NCAA tournaments, reaching the Sweet 16 in 2003.

•The softball team won the Big 12 Championship in 2006 and reached the NCAA tournament for the second straight season.

•The baseball team won the Big 12 Championship in 2006 and reached the NCAA tournament for the first time since 1994.

•The women's basketball team reached the 2006 Women's National Invitation Tournament, its first postseason appearance since 2000.

•Nineteen KU student-athletes qualified for the 2006 NCAA indoor and outdoor track and field championships, with 10 of those earning All-America honors.

Lew Perkins was on hand as former KU quarterback Nolan Cromwell had his name added to the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Missouri game on Oct. 29, 2005.

Athletics Director

Kansas Athletics fundraising has reached unprecedented levels. Under Perkins, KU's $27-million athletics budget has grown to more than $40 million. That fundraising, including landmark apparel and corporate-partner contracts, has resulted in greater services for KU coaches and student-athletes, and numerous upgrades in KU's athletics facilities:

- The Booth Family Hall of Athletics, which opened in January 2006 in Allen Fieldhouse, celebrates the tradition and history of Kansas Athletics.
- The spirit and aura of Allen Fieldhouse has been enhanced by renovations that were completed prior to the 2005-06 season, highlighted by freshly painted bleachers, new windows, new lighting and sound systems, and a new center-hung scoreboard, which includes a large, state-of-the-art video board.
- The baseball complex now features an indoor hitting facility and a new scoreboard, complete with a large, state-of-the-art video board.
- With funding secured, construction of a new football facility and practice fields adjacent to Memorial Stadium will begin shortly.
- A new Aquatic Rehabilitation Center houses three Hydroworx pools that enhance rehabilitation efforts under the guidance and supervision of the Kansas Athletics Sports Medicine Staff.

Perkins has served on many NCAA, Big 12 Conference and other prestigious committees. His current NCAA obligations include the Basketball Issues Committee. At the conference level, Perkins currently serves on the Big 12 Television Committee. In spring 2005, he was named to the Board of Directors of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Additionally, he is a member of the Gatorade Board of Directors.

As Athletics Director at Connecticut (1990-2003), Perkins was instrumental in guiding UConn athletics to impressive growth - athletically, academically and financially. His leadership influenced six NCAA Division I National Championships. He was rewarded in 2000 as the inaugural winner of the National Athletics Director of the Year Award as selected by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal, in conjunction with the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

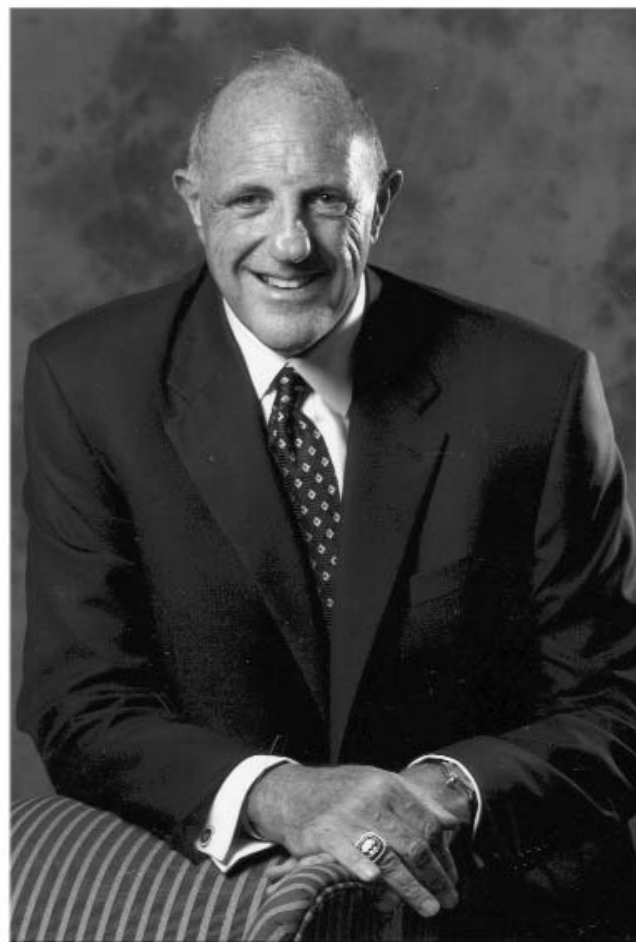

A native of Chelsea, Mass., Perkins was inducted into his high school Hall of Fame in 1989. A highly recruited basketball player, he played at the University of Iowa (1965-67) for Hall of Fame coach and KU graduate Ralph Miller. Perkins earned his undergraduate degree there in 1967.

Perkins served as Director of Athletics (1969-80) and head basketball coach (1969-79) at the University of South Carolina-Aiken as that institution grew from a junior college to a four-year institution. He received his master's degree in education (1975) from the University of South Carolina. Perkins delivered the commencement address and received an honorary Doctor of Education degree at USC-Aiken in May 2005.

Perkins also has served as Athletics Director at the University of Maryland and Wichita State University, and Associate Director of Athletics at the University of Pennsylvania.

Perkins is married to the former Gwen Flaum. Like Lew, Gwen earned an undergraduate degree from Iowa and a master's degree in education from the University of South Carolina. They have two daughters (Amy, husband Brandon Macneill; Holly, husband Tom Halligan) and two granddaughters (Caroline and Alexandra Macneill).

Williams Educational Fund

Kansas Athletics uses a team approach to meet its objective of providing scholarships, facilities and financial resources that will enhance the performance of student-athletes in the classroom and on the fields of competition. The Williams Educational Fund, KU Athletics Development and the KU Endowment Association have joined together to strategically raise funds for student-athlete scholarship support and athletic facilities and to provide unparalleled customer service to KU fans.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS WILLIAMS FUND

Regarded as the core of the annual giving program, the Williams Educational Fund is made up of alumni, friends and fans of Kansas Athletics. In 1949, the Outland Club was originated by Dick, Skipper and Odd Williams. The Williams family was responsible for raising over $2 million dollars for athletics scholarships between 1949 and 1973. In 1973, the Outland Club became known as the Williams Educational Fund to honor the Williams family for its commitment to Kansas Athletics.

This year, the Williams Fund is composed of 5,000 members who contribute annually close to $8 million to pay the scholarship expenses of KU's student-athletes. This generous financial commitment enables our athletics department to provide necessary funding for athletics scholarships and academic support for the 500-plus student-athletes at KU.

As a Williams Fund member you will enjoy unique benefits, including priority seating and parking for football and basketball. In addition, you will feel the fellowship and pride that goes along with supporting a KU student-athlete with a quality education and the opportunity to compete on a national level. Private support from individual donors is vital to athletic success.

Williams Fund members are regarded as part of the team and receive invitations to a variety of events and functions featuring KU coaches and administrators. Members are also recognized in Kansas Athletics publications.
